World Wheat Up

OTTAWA, June 7. — (CP) — World wheat supplies available for export and carry-over at May 1 leaped to 876,000,000 bushels from 749,000,000 bushels a year ago, a gain of 118,000,000, the Bureau of Statistics reported today. This was based on reports from the four major exporting countries —Canada, the United States, Australia and Argentina.

Alberta C of C Will Debate Yellowhead Line

By Bill Bell
Bulletin Staff Writer

RED DEER, June 7.—Yellowhead Pass route for a projected gas pipeline from Alberta to coast cities may be major issue at the Red Deer convention of Associated Chambers of Commerce and Agriculture.

The resolution asking that pipeline be built through Yellowhead, submitted by Jasper Chamber of Commerce and referred to the 12th annual convention, has support of a majority of northern delegates.

Owing to absence of Jasper delegates, the resolution will be submitted by Don McKay, secretary of Edmonton Chamber of Commerce to the 100 delegates from more than 40 boards of trade and chambers of commerce assembled here.

IMMIGRATION PLAN

Increased "selective" immigration into this province with "governmend aid" may be urged on the Alberta legislature.

The resolution is one of 25 major items on the agenda which has keep the committees working overtime whipping them into shape.

Under the immigration plan the provincial government will be asked to advance the money to the intending immigrant against the security of sterling funds which he may not be able to take put of his country.

12 Firemen Won't Sit For Exams

Refuse to Write Papers for Post Of Force's Chief

Twelve Edmonton fire fighters have refused to write exams for the post of fire chief.

A meeting between city commissioners and the 12 was scheduled for 2:30 p.m. today to discuss the situation.

The exams, set by New York fire consultant Harold J. Burke, were to have been held today.

The 12 men met yesterday and refused to write them until six conditions are met. Acting Chief William Ferguson suggested to city officials that the exams be postponed until Thursday.

Whether they will be written then will prrobably depend on the outcome of this afternoon's meeting.

WANT FERGUSON CHIEF

Yesterday's meeting agreed to ask that Acting Chief William Ferguson be named chief, which would allow three years until his retirement for local fire fighters to prepare themselves for any type of examination, it was reported.

The 12 applicants drafted a letter to Mayor Sid Parsons and city council objecting to writing the exams on the grounds that no definite age limit has been set (although council passed a resolution last fall setting the limit at 45 years), and that an immediate exam was called.

The letter said Commissioner John Hodgson promised six weeks for applicants to prepare themselves on subjects covered in the

Lie Peace Plan Sent To World By UN Chief

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., June 7.—(UP)—United Nations Secretary-General Trygve Lie plans to force the issue of his 10-point peace plan by pitting it before the UN Security Council for action, probably next month, informed sources said today.

Lie carried his peace crusade to the world last night, sending to all member-nations details of the 20-year program of reconciliation he previously had outlined in identical memoranda left with President Truman, Russian Premier Josef Stalin, and the leaders of Britain and France during his visit to the world's four top capitals last month.

Body Of Leading Jockey Is Found

He had been missing since May 12 when he went for an early morning swim.

CAHA Plans Change In Registration System

BANFF, June 7.—(BUP)—A new system of player registration in the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association was decided on today by the annual convention.

The scheme was evolved by a three-man committee and accepted by the convention as a whole before it adjourned at noon to go sight-seeing and enjoy numerous social functions.

The new system of registration provides a "more permanent record of each player's service in the association, and gives his whole record with the CAHA from the time he enters to the time he stops playing on a single card," said secretary-manager George Dudley, who was chairman of the committee.

Other members were George Panter, Toronto, business manager of the Ontario Hockey Association, and Frank Dillo, Montreal, registrar of the Quebec Amateur Hockey Association.

Delegates later in the convention may decide to delete the iced puck rule in amateur hockey

NBA Recognizes Savold As No. 1 Heavy Challenger

By Jack Cuddy
United Press Sports Writer

PATERSON, N.J., June 7.—(UP)—Abe J. Greene, commissioner of the National Boxing Association, announced today that the NBA will recognize Lee Savold as No. 1 challenger for the world heavyweight crown because of his impressive victory over Bruce Woodcock at London last night.

Blond Savold, 34, of nearby Englewood, N.J., won recognition throughout Europe and the British Empire as heavyweight champion by scoring a technical knockout over Woodcock of England at the end of the fourth round before 50,000 at London's White City stadium.

Woodcock, 29, was bleeding so badly from the nose, mouth and a gashed left brow that his handlers forbade him to continue. They tossed in a towel.

CHARLES IS CHAMP

Commissioner Greene emphasized that Ezzard Charles of Cincinnati still is recognized as world champion by the NBA, despite Savold's foreign titles and despite uncertainty about Charles' physical condition.

Under orders from physicians, Charles is now resting because of a heart condition. An NBA examination in August will disclose whether Charles can continue fighting or must retire.

Greene continued: "It is our hope that Charles will be found physically fit. However, if he is forced to retire and if Joe Louis returns to the ring seeking his former title, Louis must fight Savold forthe vacant crown. Similarly, in case of Charles' retirement, any other contender must fight Savold for the cown."

OFFER RECEIVED

The NBA commissioner disclosed that a "reputable party" had submitted to him last night the following offer for a Savold title fight this summer in the Jersey City ball park: $150,000 to be split between Savold and Jersey Joe Walcott; $175,000 between Savold and Charles; $350,000 between Savold and Louis. Those sums could be divided as the fighters thought best.

Detwiler Plan 'Last Chance'

Support for the Detwiler plan was urged yesterday by Commissioner John Hodgson.

Addressing the Gyro club's luncheon at Macdonald hotel, he said the $28,000,000 scheme was the "salvation of the core of Edmonton."

He said it would revitalize the whole 97 street area, bring untold benefits and prove the beginning of modern Edmonton.

"It's our last chance to preserve the values of downtown Edmonton," he said. "If it doesn't go through, I tremble to think of the result in rotting property values in the central areas."

Rainy Lake Nears Record

FORT FRANCES, Ont., June 7—(BUP)—Flooding Rainy Lake rose within four inches of an all-time high level today and mounting damage to private property was reported near here.

Fort Frances itself was not in danger, officials said.

Veteran fishermen forecast the lake would rise another 14 inches, 10 inches above a peak reached in the disastrous flood year of 1916. Engineers declined to guess.

Belgian Minister Will Form Gov't

BRUSSELS, Belgium, June 7 —(BUP) — Jean Duvieusart, acting economic affairs minister and ardent supporter of King Leopold, was asked today to form a Belgian government.

Duvieusart accepted the mandate from Prince Charles, the regent. He was expected to have ready within 24 hours an all-Catholic cabinet pledged to return Leopold to his throne.

Will Be Built Near Macdonald Hotel

Early start on construction of a $1,000,000 public car-parking garage near the Macdonald hotel was announced today by President Wallace Miller of Miller Motors Ltd.

Site of the new building is on Memorial Walk, to the rear of Edmonton Public Library. The property is owned by Mr. Miller.

Permit for the modern parking building will be taken out in a few days and the structure will be completed before the 300-room extension to the Macdonald hotel is finished in the summer of 1952.

The new building, which will be of fire-proof construction throughout, will be erected on the site of the present Yellow Cab Company garage. It will occupy property 158 by 64 feet and will be from seven to 10 storeys in height. Room for 450 cars will be provided.

Mr. Miller is also managing director and president of Yellow Cab Co. Ltd.

FIRST ON PRAIRIES

The new public parking building will be the first of its kind on the prairies, Mr. Miller said.

Elevators will carry automobiles from floor to floor from the street level.

There will be a full-time service staff with all cars parked covered by insurance.

In announcing decision to construct the large parking garage, Mr. Miller said:

"I feel that such a parking garage will go along way toward solving Edmonton's great parking problem.

ANSWER TO PROBLEM

"With completion of the Macdonald hotel extension, parking of cars in the central part of the city would become a truly major problem. I feel that the proposed building will provide an answer to that problem.

"In addition, congestion on streets in the central part of the city will be greatly relieved."

Mr. Miller said he has studied modern public parking buildings in most of the large cities of the United States during the past couple of years.

The first-hand knowledge he has gained from this careful study will be capitalized in design and construction of the Edmonton parking garage, he said.

CONTRACTORS NAMED

General contract for the building will go to James C. Haddow Construction Co.

Colin Allan firm will put in electrical fixtures, including elevators, while the Edmonton plumbing firm of Dow and Scott is in charge of plumbing fixtures.

First step in the project will be demolition of the present Yellow Cab Garage on Memorial Walk.

Work on the new parking building will commence as soon as this is completed, either early this fall or in the early spring, Mr. Miller said.

A garage for the Yellow Cab fleet will be provided elsewhere in the city, Mr. Miller said.

'Mac' Hotel Steel Work Rises Soon

Steel will start going up on the 16-storey Macdonald hotel next week.

This was announced here today by Lou Heeren, resident architect for Canadian National Railways, Montreal.

Although concrete foundations and footings will not be completed by Poole Construction Company Ltd., for two or three weeks, steel columns will start to rise from the north foundation wall next week, Mr. Heeren said.

BY DECEMBER

Western Bridge and Steel Fabricators Ltd., Vancouver, who have the contract for steel column and girder work on the 300-room extension, plan to complete steel work by next December.

Mr. Heeren also said that laying of first stone facing on the east side of the extension will commence toward the end of July or the first week in August.

RETAINING WALL

Poole Construction is now concentrating on a retaining wall for the underpinning of the footings where the extension foundation touches the old hotel.

Adby Construction Co. Ltd. is carrying out the actual foundation construction under sub-contract to the Poole Co.

General contract for the hotel has not yet been awarded but this is expected to be announced shortly Mr. Heeren said.

Extension is expected to be completed some time in the summer of 1952.

Coal Strike End Sought

DRUMHELLER, Alta., June 7.—(CP)—Union and mine officials were meeting today in an attempt to settle the three-day strike of 120 miners of the Red Deer Valley coal mine who went on strike Monday morning in protest against the company's laying-off a miner who had been caught smoking in the coal dust filled mine tipple.

Edward Boyd and William Ure, both of Calgary, representatives of District 18, United Mine Workers of America (CCL), arrived in Drumheller today accompanied by V. A. Cooney, of Calgary, executive secretary of the Domestic Coal Operators' Association of western Canada.

The miners are on a protest strike because Cyril Jones, of Drumheller, was laid off temporarily last Thursday when Ed Potter, mine manager, caught him smoking in the tipple.

Murder Trial Set For 'Kindly' Granny

Crime

Madame Marie Besnard looks like a kindly grandmother and claims a "gentle character," but French police say she is responsible for the arsenic deaths of 12 of her close relatives.

After nearly three months of mental tests, doctors yesterday ruled the 54-year-old French peasant woman was sane and must face trial for murder. Mme. Besnard is accused of poisoning her parents, two husbands, the parents of her second husband and six other persons—all since 1927. Conviction could mean death on the guillotine.

Evasion Charged In Unemployment

CCF Members Attack Lack Of Action On Public Works

OTTAWA, June 7.—(CP)—Clarie Gillis, CCF member of the Commons for Cape Breton South, has accused the government of "passing the buck" on the question of combatting unemployment.

In an address prepared for delivery on the CBC's program of free time for political parties, he said Canada has a dangerous unemployment problem which demands immediate federal action.

On the same program, Hazen Argue (CCF—Assiniboia) said the government "stands idly by while our markets slip away and the spectre of agriculture surpluses returns to haunt the producer."

Mr. Gillis said the problem of unemployment is a common one for both rural and urban areas. Canada must undertake measures within the country to keep up purchasing power so Canadian products could be consumed.

The government had announced it was gathering a shelf of unemployment projects, but now was saying the initial responsibility for maintaining unemployment was upon provincial and municipal bodies.

SHELF SHELVED

"In other words," Mr. Gillis said, "the shelf of public works has been shelved."

Mr. Argue criticized the government for not adopting a suggestion that Canada accept sterling in payment for part of the food sold to Britain and other Commonwealth countries. If that were done, Britain would be more than willing to accept surplus Canadian farm products.

As matters stood, Canadian farmers faced insecurity. Much produce was going unsold. Egg and bacon prices had fallen. Apple producers of British Columbia and Nova Scotia had lost their overseas markets. Ontario and Quebec cheese producers were getting less than the cost of production. Potato growers in Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick faced "ruination."

It is estimated that it takes about two acres of farm crops per person to feed the United States.

4. Since a drill instructor has finally been appointed by Acting Chief Ferguson, the men feel that the acting chief should be appointed Chief. In the three-year interval before his retirement, local fire fighters would have opportunity to prepare themselves for any type of examination.

The exam is designed by New York fire consultant Harold J. Burke to test applicants' fire fighting knowledge and their ability to head the city's fire department.

Doctors Will Testify When Thief Sentenced

A DVA psychiatrist and a doctor from Oliver Mental Hospital will give evidence in Supreme Court at 10 a.m. Friday when convicted jewel thief and Edmonton jail escapee James R. Johnston, 21, appears for sentencing.

Johnston was found guilty today by Chief Justice Howson of $2,800 theft from Birks jewelry store here March 19. Tuesday he pleaded guilty to a charge of escaping from custody April 19.

Johnston's counsel, Abe C. Miller, KC, today asked Chief Justice Howson for permission to present the two doctors' evidence as well as that of Johnston's father.

The father was in court today as his son was found guilty of theft of two rings valued at $2,800 from Henry Birks and Sons (Western) Ltd. store in Edmonton, Saturday afternoon, March 18.

PUTNAM DISCHARGED

Johnston's alleged partner, James E. Putnam, charged with theft in the Birks case, was discharged today by the Chief Justice after two store clerks failed to identify him as the "short man" who waited by the revolving door the day of the theft.

They "positively" identified Johnston as "the tall gentleman" who walked coolly behind a counter around 2:30 p.m., opened a door to a window display and stole two valuable rings.

Johnston and Putnam were subsequently arrested in Vancouver and returned here. The two rings have never been recovered.

The Chief Justice remanded Johnston for sentence until 10 a.m. Friday on charges both of theft and escaping from custody. On the latter Johnston pleaded guilty Tuesday.

He will also face a charge of theft of two rings from Ferd Nadon Jeweler's here, March 3. The case was sent up from police court yesterday after a preliminary hearing.

The crown's efforts to link Putnam and Johnston together was apparently weakened when the Chief Justice refused crown counsel J. W. K. Shortreed permission to have crown witness read his own police court testimony "to refresh his memory."

W. J. Beaumont appeared for Putnam.

There was little cross examination of any of the witnesses.

2nd Officer Quits Force After Crash

Constable J. F. Dean, second member of the prowler car crew whose vehicle overturned on 86 street near 114 avenue early May 29, has resigned from the Edmonton police force.

Chief Reg. Jennings, announcing completion of police investigations into the accident, said Dean's resignation was accepted.'

The other member of the car's two man crew, Constable C. O. Rykstad, driver, admitted he had been driving too fast when he rounded the 45-degree turn from 115 avenue onto 86 street, said Chief Jennings.

Rykstad was dismissed from the force last week.

OTHER DAMAGE

Chief Jennings said that unreasonable speed was the sole cause of the accident which caused, he said, $1,000 damage to the car.

Additional damage was caused to 16 feet of hedge and fence belonging to Horace Jones, 11414-86 street when the prowler car skidded along the edge of his property.

Third occupant of the car, Const. J. Brown, was exonerated of any blame for the accident, as he was a passenger in the car and was not a member of the crew.

Water Claims In Jeopardy

Canadian claims on international waters of Southern Alberta are being jeopardized by the Dominion government's apparent failure to sign the St. Mary's and Milk River irrigation agreement.

The charge was made today by Hon. David A. Ure, Alberta minister of agriculture.

He referred to an agreement drafted between the Alberta government and the Dominion department of agriculture, setting out the financial responsibility of each government in developing the Southern Alberta irrigation project.

CERTIFIED COPY

Canadian representatives planned to submit a certified copy of the signed agreement at hearings of the International Joint Commission next week.

The Commission will start its sittings at Shelby, Mont., next Monday to determine the division of Canadian and American claims to the water of rivers which rise in Alberta and flow into the United States.

Fine Weather Aids Fighters

Favorable weather conditions are aiding fire fighters in keeping forest fire damage at a minimum in Northern Alberta.

Chief timber inspector J. L. Janssen said today no new fires were reported over night.

Crews have been despatched from Athabasca to aid fire fighters battling a blaze in timber at Calling Lake. The 15 men in the area are expected to bring the fire under control shortly.

Fire is still burning north of Whitecourt, but fire fighting crews are keeping it out of timber stands.

All other fires in the province, none of them serious, are under control.

Pioneer Man Dies In City At Age Of 70

One of Edmonton's oldest and well-known residents, Harvey Bignell, 70, 9631 - 107 avenue, died last night at his home.

Mr. Bignell came to Edmonton from Ontario in 1906. He was well known as a livestock buyer in the city and surrounding districts.

He is survived by his widow and one son, Alex, both of Edmonton.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at Andrews & McLaughlin Funeral Chapel, with Rev. E. H. Birdsall officiating.

Interment will be in Beechmount cemetery.

LE MANS, France, June 7. — (Reuters) — Cloudburst rains accompanied by a hail storm hit this town late yesterday, sweeping automobiles down the streets in rushing floods six feet deep. Several walls collapsed and all traffic was halted two hours.

U.K. Arrivals' Outings Planned By Association

Newcomers from the United Kingdom will be introduced to the scenic beauties of Alberta through a plan being put into operation by the Alberta British Commonwealth Association here.

The outings are being planned so that recent arrivals can spend a pleasant day at some of the province's summer resorts at a minimum of expense.

First outing will be to Elk Island National Park on Sunday, June 11, according to notice from association secretary H. Paull.

Chartered busses will leave the Union Bus Depot at 10 a.m. and return at 7 p.m.

All those wishing to attend are asked to contact Mr. Paull at 9657-85 avenue or telephone 35266 between hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. on days prior to the outing.

New St. Patrick's To Be Dedicated By Archbishop

St. Patrick's church, the latest to be completed in Edmonton, will be dedicated Sunday by His Grace, Archbishop J. H. MacDonald, Roman Catholic archbishop of Edmonton.

The new church is located at 118 avenue and 96 street and will serve the north part of rapidly growing Sacred Heart parish. Pastor of the new church will be Rt. Rev. M. J. O'Gorman, pastor of Sacred Heart, assisted by Father E. Donahoe.

The $100,000 church will seat approximately 400 persons and will have a church hall in the basement.

Dedication service will start at 10:30 a.m. and will be followed by solemn high mass at 11:00. The sermon will be preached by Rev. J. Malone, pastor of St. Joseph's cathedral.

Plane From Carrier Crashes Into Sea

HALIFAX, June 7 — (CP) — A Firefly aircraft from the aircraft carrier Magnificent crashed in the sea today off the east coast of Nova Scotia and one man is missing and believed drowned.

The plane was piloted by Lieut. D. J. Fisher, of Toronto, who was picked up by the destroyer Micmac. Missing and believed drowned is Able Seamon Walter Mitchell, of Rockingham Post Office, Nova Scotia.

CITY PHONEMAN GETS 10TH TERM IN OFFICE

A. C. Smith, of Red Deer, Alberta, was elected president of Alberta Chapter No. 46, Telephone Pioneers of America, for 1950-51, at a recent meeting held in Calgary.

Other officers elected were: Frank Jackson, Edmonton, vice-president; Walter K. Evans, Edmonton, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Evans was re-elected for his 10th term in office.

Directors include: C. W. Chamberlain, Calgary; W. Hewson and George H. McIlveen, both of Edmonton; James MMcGregor, Geo. Baxter, Herman Doucette, George Roberts and Thomas Robb, all of Lethbridge; and John Boorman, of Macleod.

Officers elected will take over office July 1.

Membership in this organization is confined to persons with 21 or more years' service in the telephone industry

'LET'S GET 100,000 MORE'

Neighbors Like Mennonite Industry and Appreciation

By JACK SCOTT

YARROW, B.C. — My editor thought it would be a Jim-Dandy idea if the first Canadian interviewed on our cross-country tour was an Indian, who is, after all, the first Canadian. Hasn't worked out that way. The first Canadian to tell me his story spoke very little English, spent nearly all his life in Russia and talked to me in low German through an interpreter. But maybe its just as appropriate this way.

Nine halting words in English seemed to me to sum up Henry Friesen's story best. I'd asked him how he likes his new nationality. Friesen abandoned his familiar language, turned from the interpreter to me and said slowly. "You do not have to be scared for something."

FREEDOM ASTONISHING

Most of Henry's life has been spent being "scared for something." I suppose that's why it gives you such a wallop to the emotions, as a Canadian, to find people like this, people still astonished that there's no longer need of fear, who start nervously when there's a rap on the door, then shake their heads, laughing with the knowledge that the worst it can be is a brush salesman.

Friesen is a thin-faced, melancholy, pale-haired man of 23 who looks a dozen years older. He came out of the rows of raspberry canes of his father-in-laws farm at twilight and we talked in the parlor of the small, square farmhouse. The room was austerely furnished, brightened only by framed biblical quotations in German and a fat blue hydrangea from the nursery where he works by day. The room was painstakingly clean and neat.

He was the first Mennonite I'd met.

NO FOREIGNERS

Friesen, his father and mother-in-law, and his 25-year-old bride, Anne, are among the newest displaced persons in the Mennonite town of Yarrow here where the Fraser Valley is swallowed by the mountains.

Like most of the Mennonites who have found refuge in Canada since the war's end, Friesen and his relatives had lived under great difficulties in the Ukraine (Friesen claims that his father was taken away by the secret police in 1937 and not heard from again.) They were shipped off to Germany as slave labor when the Naizis rolled over the South Ukraine.

Friesen and the other I talked to are bitterly anti-Communist (in Yarrow they vote almost solidly Liberal) and this has brought about a curious compromise with their faith.

THEY'D FIGHT

The Mennonite religion opposes war, but when I asked Friesen what his actions would be should the cold war get hot, Friesen picked up an imaginary rifle in his thin, farmer's hands and the others in the room nodded grimly in approval

Yarrow, itself, looks like any other small, dusty valley burg. The land from its perimeter is squared into small fruit and dairy farms. As Mennonite colonists go, it's comparatively new. The first Mennonites to arrive in Canada settled in the Red River Valley in 1871. The first group came to this distant, unlikely spot in 1928 and there's a population in the immediate area of around 3000.

You do not get an impression of visiting a foreign place. There are no women under peasant shawls. The religion itself is not fanatic and the Mennonites resent being lumped in the public mind with extreme sects of Hutterites and Doukhobors.

ALL IN A YEAR

They are proudest of their ability to adopt the ways of their new land. The way the younger people pick up English is amazing. Three 'teen age girls in bobby sox and saddle shoes who had climbed into the branches of an apple tree to keep cool gave us directions in perfect English although they spoke not a word a year ago.

"Auf Weidersehn," I said when we were leaving. "Goodbye," the girls carolled.

They are hard workers and ambitious and in nearby Chilliwack the merchants and businessmen speak of them with respect. "There are a hundred thousand Mennonites in Canada," one businessman told me, "And if they're all like they are down at Yarrow I'd say let's get a hundred thousand more."

Yellowhead Not Studied

CALGARY — The matter of gas export dragged one more short, slow step forward today, as the matter of routes suggested by Northwest Natural Gas Company went under further observation.

A. B. Swinerton, president of Pacific Pipelines and Engineers Limited and vice-president of Haddock Engineers—engineering firms engaged by Northwest—told the board that anyone who chose the Crow's Nest, as opposed to the U.S. route south through Kingsgate, would need his head examined. He spoke, he said, from the viewpoint of economics only.

He said the line through the Crow's Nest could be built, but only at a very much greater construction and maintenance cost, and the supply would not be as dependable.

SILENT ON YELLOWHEAD

Mr. Swinerton said his firms had not examined the Yellowhead route of Westcoast Transmission, and when he spoke of the Kingsgate U.S. line as being the cheapest, he was not comparing it with the Yellowhead line.

He said neither he nor either of the firms he represented had been asked to make any thorough study of the Yellowhead route.

Stanley Slipper, who estimated Alberta gas reserves at 12 trillion cubic feet, went under further cross examination by C. E. Smith, acting for the Alberta Petroleum and Natural Gas Conservation Board.

Route B, which goes south and across the U.S. with Vancouver at the end of the line, was explained in further detail.

Under the Destructive Insect and Pest act, officials have the authority to check on all plants imported to or exported from Canada.

Champion Filleter Is Fishmonger May

BOURNEMOUTH, Eng.—(CP)). Joe May, 40-year-old Liverpool fishmonger, is Britain's champion fish filleter.

Fishmongers from all over Britain showed their skill with the filleting knife in a recent competition here.

To win his title, Joe plain-cleaned a haddock, cleaned and curled seven writing, cut a small plaice into two fillets, a big one into four, cleaned a third and prepared a large Dover sole for grilling—all in 14 minutes.

3-Phase Lights Feature Opening

Bridge Reopening Involves Lights At 109 Street and 88th

Re-opening of the 105 street bridge today brought an interesting new kink to motoring in Edmonton—the three-phase traffic lights operating simultaneously at 109 street and 88 avenue.

The lights are an attempt to alleviate the tangles which have plagued the busy corner in the past, and the even more muddled conditions which might develop with a heavier volume of traffic using renovated 105 street bridge.

North and south bound traffic on 109 street will move with one green light, while all other traffic stops.

East and west bound traffic on Saskatchewan Drive will move with the second green light, while all other traffic stops.

The third phase of operation will allow traffic up Walterdale Hill from the 105 street bridge to move on a green light, and on the same green traffic will move south from the street which enters the busy intersection from the north-west, beside the Corner Drug Store.

8-MONTH-JOB

Traffic moved over the renovated bridge late Tuesday afternoon for the first time in eight months.

During the extensive repairs the wooden decking was removed and steel grid decking substituted, the south span was raised and new approaches built, the piers given a jacketing of concrete and additional bracing, and the whole structure painted, and new paved approaches put in, both south and north.

Mr. Macdonald said today the traffic lights are working well, after an initial mixup when they were first turned on.

While a total cycle of 70 seconds is now provided for all three phases of movement, new equipment is on order which will allow extension to a maximum two-minute cycle. It is proposed, however, to extend it only to 80 seconds at first.

40 SECONDS NOW

At present, all traffic is being cleared with a 40-second north-south movement, 19-second east west movement, and an 11-second movement of traffic up Walterdale hill. As more cars and trucks use the 105 street bridge route, the cycle will be modified to care for it, said Mr. Macdonald.

Total estimated cost of the whole bridge project is $281,500, including work on the utilities carriers.

There are 21 hospitals run by the Indian health service for Canada's Indians and Eskimos.

Economy, Then Beauty

Mr. R. V. MacCosham does well to seek publicity for his belief that town planning must aim at economy as well as beauty.

He does well to thus stress the utilitarian aspect of town planning because, in criticizing town planning by implication, he has managed to give an admirable definition of it.

As The Edmonton Bulletin has tried to point out, time and time again, town planning is essentially utilitarian and economical. It is no fancy plan of beautification.

Beautification enters into town planning mostly because beauty is usually a by-product of simplification and order.

Mr. MacCosham is afraid that the utilitarian angles are being forgotten in Edmonton's town planning program. It is impossible that the utilitarian angles are being forgotten for, once utility and economy were thrown out the window, the program would no longer be town planning.

The point that exercises Mr. MacCosham's indignation is what he apparently believes to be the rejection of his plan, and a reasonable plan it is, too, for diagonal truck loading in the warehouse district.

It should be noted that Mr. MacCosham's plan was not actually rejected. Indeed, mayor, aldermen and town planner commented on the ingenious nature of it.

But the adoption of it was postponed for a month while the town planner investigated its applicability to the entire wholesale district.

If a better plan is found, it will be used. If no better plan is found, Mr. MacCosham's plan will presumably be put into operation.

That seems to be eminently reasonable.

Certainly it should give Mr. MacCosham no cause for that impatience and irritation with which he appears to speak disparagingly of town planning.

Edmonton has done well by Mr. MacCosham. And Mr. MacCosham has performed a very useful service for Edmonton over a period of years.

Thus, Mr. MacCosham is entitled to think of himself as a prominent citizen with the respect and liking of other citizens, which he undoubtedly has.

But, all this being true, there is nothing in Mr. MacCosham's relationship with Edmonton which should persuade him to believe that he enjoys or should enjoy any special privilege.

When he appears before council, he appears as any other citizen. When he makes a suggestion, that suggestion has only the weight of its own merits and none of the weight of Mr. MacCosham's deserved prestige.

He is ill-advised, then, to break into print with a complaint about town planning merely because that prestige did not impel council to jump at his plan for diagonal truck docks in the warehouse district.

Undoubtedly Mr. MacCosham's experience in this matter is wide and practical as everybody has admitted.

But town planning's experience is even wider and more practical because it takes in the experience of all modern cities and aims at economy and utility, not for one firm, but for all Edmonton.

Just How Silly Can We Get?

A sage contribution to the international situation is made by an American haberdasher named Paul D. Gilbert who addressed the Association of Better Business Bureaux in Washington upon the appalling condition of Prime Minister Josef Stalin's clothes.

Stalin, said Gilbert, who is head of the National Association of Retail Colthiers in the United States, is "the worst dressed man in the international scene."

Then Haberdasher Gilbert uttered this piece of sublime statecraft:

"A lot of the world's problems would be solved if Joe Stalin would come over here and get himself a nice summer suit—a good straw hat and a pair of brown and white shoes."

We have heard that the shoemaker should stick to his last. But we have never heard that he should wear it in his heart.

Nor can we conceive with ease of a gents' furnisher so obsessed with his trade that he offers its felicities as panaceas for world unrest.

It would be nice if life's problems, including the international situation, could be reduced to the happy simplicity of a straw hat and a pair of brown and white shoes.

But since even the naive Mr. Gilbert must realize that he was talking a little wildly, we can only wonder how soon the Moscow press will be asking:

"Just how silly can they get?"

Indeed, that question has already been asked in Russian journalism.

For the same issue that records the profundities of Mr. Gilbert quotes an editorial from the Russian youth newspaper in Moscow which asserts that the cold war has resulted in mass insanity in the United States.

Says this Moscow editorial: "The cold war has made 17,000,000 lunatics in the United States."

It is rather unfortunate that the democracies continue to supply evidence to support such views.

After Mr. Gilbert's essay into world politics finds its way beyond the Iron Curtain, the Moscow estimate of democratic lunacy will be probably doubled.

Spirit of Hitler Still in Them

The Communist Free German Youth, whose association is said to number about 1,200,000, is going to defy thte West German Republic and hold a "congress of young peace fighters" within its borders.

The ease with which Russia has organized these fanatic youngsters has been due, of course, to their indoctrinization by Hitler with the totalitarian principle.

Any goose-stepping nonsense will do so long as it permits them to get out and shout and raise mischief.

The spirit of Hitler is so obviously still in them that it would be a fine piece of irony if all the Hitlerian teaching, designed to aggrandize Germany, should be turned, as it is being turned, to the less noble task of making Germany a vassal of Russia.

Blind Date Was Really Blind But They Married Anyway

Last Saturday, Eleanor and I motored to Greenwich to have dinner with a fellow named Ed Gilson, who occasionally sells electrical supplies to my theatre.

Billy Rose

The Gilson house was one of those white-clapboard, green-shutter jobs, and he and his wife were on the porch as we drove up. Alice was a real beauty, but when Ed introduced us we could tell she was blind by the way she looked right past us.

Nevertheless, it turned out to be quite an evening—the grub was first-rate, the talk was small but not microscopic, and by 10 o'clock the girls were swapping recipes and gossip while Ed and I watched the fights on the television. An hour later, Eleanor announced she had a yen for chocolate ice cream, so Ed and I got into his Chevvy and drove to the village.

"How long have you kids been married?" I asked.

"Eight years," he said, "and in case you're wondering, the fact that Alice can't see doesn't bother us at all.

Blind Date Practical Joke

"That's pretty obvious," I said, "but now that you've brought it up, how did you know the marriage was going to work out that way at the beginning?"

"Well, that was something that was pretty obvious to me, right from the evening when a stinker named Frankie Stearns got us together."

"Mind telling me about it?" I said.

"Not at all," said Gilson. "I happened to meet Alice only because this Frankie was trying to play a practical joke on me."

"Give it to me in short takes," I said.

"Well, I was a pretty green kid when I first hit New York, and Frankie, who was a salesman for the electrical appliance outfit I worked for, took a shine to me and showed me around.

Hot Shot Liked Foil

"Looking back at it, I can see why. For one thing, I was a bit of a boob and made him look good by comparison. For another, I was so happy to be in the company of a hot-shot that I didn't mind when he stuck me with the check.

"One night Frankie introduced me to a knockout of a girl named Joyce and told me they were engaged. Later that evening, thanks to a couple of highballs, I found myself asking Joyce whether there were any more at home like her.

"'Joyce does have a sister,' said Frankie, 'and she's quite a dish. I'll fix it for you.'

"That's not funny," said Joyce, but Frankie shut her up with a look and gave me the telephone number. And when I called the next evening the voice at the other end said 'Frankie told me all about you and I'd be glad to meet you.'

"Well, Alice turned out to be every bit as attractive as her sister—in fact, maybe more so—and I was so flustered I didn't notice anything wrong until I asked her to go to the movies. When she told me she was blind, I realized Frankie had played a bum joke on me, but I stayed and gabbed for a while and had a pretty good time at that.

Being Blind Helps Sight

"A few months later we got married and I've never regretted it. Frankie and Joyce got hitched too, but he gave her a rough time of it, and she divorced him after a couple of years and hasn't married since."

"Nice twist," I said. "Joyce undoubtedly had plenty of boy friends to choose from and two good eyes to choose with, and she picked a lemon. Alice, on the other hand, picked a winner the first try."

"My missus has a corny way of explaining it," said Ed. "She says sometimes being blind helps you to see."

Smiles

Young Smithers was feeling off color, and consulted a specialist. The specialist examined him and said.

"All that is wrong with you, young fellow is that you smoke too many cigarettes. Here is a way to cure yourself of the habit. It is quite simple. Whenever you light a cigarette, put a stone into your pocket. Soon the discomfort of carring the stones about will cure you."

Young Smithers nodded and departed. Three days later the specialist received a postcard from his patient.

"Dear Sir," it said, "I am following your advice, but I look darned funny pushing a wheelbarrow."

"William, I used to have a luxuriant beard like yours but when I looked at myself in the mirror, I decided to shave it off."

Quick as a flash, William retorted: "Sir, I once had a face like yours but when I looked at myself in the mirror, I decided to grow a beard."

Power Of Prayer

Editor, Bulletin—

When your soul is ill and your heart is full
Of tears and tragedy,
When you cannot disperse the clouds of sham,
That fanatically swirl to damn—
You turn to God in prayer.

When you're down and out and every turn
Has misted in your way,
When your lone attempt for justice fails,
And turns to ashes on life's scales—
You speak to God in prayer.

And always, as if by miracle,
Your soul uplifted shines;
With trembling lips you smile and kneel:
"Oh, Lord, I have thy love to heal, Thy grace to seek in prayer!"

Flood Disaster

Editor, Bulletin—No lack of sympathy prompts us to remark that there are two ways of looking at the Manitoba flood disaster. We can look upon it as natural and terrible! Given the right conditions, what is more natural than a river's overflow? What more terrible than the consequences?

Rivers constitute a gravitating wall of weight and any deviation beyond a certain point means flooding. The torn heart of the Dominion is visibly affected by what is taking place in Manitoba today, consequently both natural and terrible become twin adjectives.

Yet somehow the former seems to balance the latter. Natural takes the weight off, terrible adds the weight on to the rolling walls of water and their aftermath. Incredible but true!

As we contribute, let us remember this. The weight is sufficient without our adding to it, mentally or otherwise.

Canada First

Editor, Bulletin—The east has no idea of the vast resources of Northern Alberta and B.C.

The country needs a heart and blood vessels to pump life into it. Pipelines from gas and oil fields are needed to carry the lifeblood to a system that opens up the greatest country in the world.

Will the Canadian government lightly pour this bloodstream into the United States and leave Western Canada cold and dead, until the Americans take the country over and start the flow in the right direction? The development and well-being of this great country is of first importance.

We must not give away our living and go to live with our neighbor if we wish the respect of our neighbor.

Our resources belong to Canada and in time will yield 100-fold. Surely gas is one of them. Two railways and a highway have successfully scaled the mountains—a pipeline is easy. A decision of national policy should not lightly be passed on to others for temporary or selfish gain. It is a government responsibility of great moment that concerns all Canada.

Auto Insurance

Editor, Bulletin—I would like to offer a suggestion regarding automobile insurance.

Since the premiums required by insurance companies are regulated by the number of claims made against them, would it not prove an incentive to safer and cheaper motoring if a "no-claim" bonus was paid each year by the insurance companies to their clients who have made no claim for damages during that period?

This would have the result of lowering the premium to the careful motorist without in any way increasing the risk to the insurance company.

I might add I have enjoyed this privilege in the past, in the Old Country, to our mutual satisfaction over a period of many years.

Flood Relief

Editor, Bulletin—While listening to the Flood Relief Fund program, I suddenly got an idea how the fund could be helped—if managers or owners figured they could co-operate.

Take the dance halls for instance. Perhaps each one could put on a special dance for one night and donate proceeds to the Winnipeg Relief Fund. Then there are the beer parlors. Perhaps they could donate so many hours one night, and that money could go towards the fund.

When we think of the people it would help, it seems a pity not to try it.

Editor, Bulletin—

The former are colder
And as I grow older,
And possibly fatter—
I take the latter.

Small Fry

Editor, Bulletin—My eleven-year-old son, who has to go a long way through a field to mlik a cow twice daily, decided one day to make the cow come to him instead. He patted her gently and talked softly to her. That evening she saw him coming toward her across the field and came out to meet him. Overjoyed at his progress, he repeated the program, and the next morning his bovine friend came as soon as he entered the field. Being an appreciative lad, he decided to stop by the corner grocery that evening and buy a reward for her—a stick of unpulled molasses taffy—that to him was very delicious.

That night, the cow was watching and came all the way to him while he stood and waited just inside the gate.

He put his arm around her neck and placed the taffy in her mouth. She clamped her teeth together with the hard sticky stuff between them. Smothered bellows escaped as she shook her head and tried vainly to pull her teeth apart.

The boy walks all the way now to milk the cow.

I thought your readers would enjoy this true story.

Russian Aims

Editor, Bulletin—It is indeed unfortunate that steps have not been taken to inform the Canadian and American people of the true facts about Communism. There is a great wealth of factual material available, yet in turning to our radio and newspapers for information on this vital problem we must be content with reports that are either hearsay or the irresponsible comments of the Dean of Canterbury. In such circumstances it is not surprising that there are many, many peace-loving people who, like "R.S." (Bulletin June 1) find themselves confused and in doubt over Russia and Communism.

It should be made clear from the beginning that the Russian people are merely the tools of the Communist State, and it is the Communist State and not the Russian people which threatens our free and democratic life. I know of no evidence that Russians are any more or any less immoral than Canadians, or that they are any more or any less desirous of war; but I do know of evidence that the Communist aim is world revolution, and that to achieve that aim the Communists willingly sacrifice the very truth, liberty and justice that we prize so highly.

THE QUESTION: Do you think there has been an increase in crime in Canada since the end of the war?

M. Fritz

H. Forss

D. Saunders

John Kitso

A. Dymtrowsky

P. Kitsco

DON SAUNDERS, 7815-79 avenue, assistant surveyor: Yes, there has been. Jobs are much more difficult to get, more people are unemployed and the increase of population all lend a hand in present crime.

ANNE DYMTROWSKY, 9530-108A avenue, seamstress: I think there is. Since the end of the war, one has heard and read about more murders, thefts and other types of crime which seldom happened during the war years.

PAUL KITSCO, 11824-46 street, hat blocker: During the war when fathers were away, many of their children did not receive proper attention, and still don't know the meaning of right and wrong. Yes is my answer.

MAY FRITZ, 9933-107 street, bookkeeper: I myself think there has been, but it's too late to worry now. Why not do away with all the things that might lead children astray?

AL FORSS, 10516-127 street, salesman: I believe a great deal of it is due to people out of work who find crime one of their means of support.

JOHN KITSO, 10752-Jasper avenue, manager: What with all the murders and other types of crime occurring throughout Canada at present, I should think there is. Crime, before the war was never as popular as it is now

Airliner Skipper Chats With Fares

We will concede the point—at least, I will—that sticking stewardesses on airplanes was the first faint sign of culture in a reasonably barbarous business, because a trim, good-looking dame is an asset anywhere, even in the air.

It's been 20 years this week since United Airlines took the first step, but it's only been in the last year or so that the airlines generally got around to an even more important piece of public relations on a broad scale.

That is the business of the loudspeaker, with the chief pilot's hairy tonsils on the broadcasting end. And, oddly enough, United seems to have done this a little better than the other lines so far.

The window dressing in the neat uniform with the plump gams and the toothpaste smile is not much good to the worriers when the plane hits rough stuff and begins to jounce and prance and buck like a stallion in the spring, or when the No. 3 engine cuts out, or when the craft is unaccountably delayed over the landing field.

Gams Don't Drive Plane

The gal is not much account because she is not driving the bus, and right about then the passenger, especially the occasional air traveler, is more interested in the people who are hidden away in the cockpit, twisting the gadgets and twiddling the knobs that make the machine go.

At last gasp, the stewardess or steward is just a passenger, too, and as helpless as you.

So the enlightened air lines finally figger up this gimmick of the public address system, with the skipper on the announcing end. By the use of this gizmo most of the mystery and many of the moans have been subtracted from a reasonably imperfect form of transportation, since it takes the customer into the act and stills his fears and doubts before they form.

Ambitious As M.C.

Last time I was up in a United liner the pilot evidently was practicing to set up some competition to Arthur Godfrey. He had a warty voice, deep down in the tonsillar department and was fully as casual as Crosby. He said in effect:

"Hya, nice people. My name's Cap'n Spike. We're gettin' off a little late, on account of somebody mislaid the lunch, but we reckon to make it up, because they tell me we got some fair-grade tailwinds all the way home.

"We got just a little weather up ahead, so when she starts to bounce a little don't worry. We'll be out of it in about 15 minutes. Just tie on your belts when the sign flashes and keep smokin' if you wanta. Our ground speed is gonna be about 315 miles an hour, and the visibility is just fine in Chicago, even if it is a little nasty here.

Gives You A Feeling

Then later:

"You notice a little oil comin' out of the No. 1 engine, maybe? Nothin' to worry about. If she keeps spoutin' we'll just cut her off and fly just as fast and just as good as before. Say, I think I'll tip my wings and let you look down there at this town we're over. Isn't that a pretty sight? Case you're interested, the tailwind's picked up and we're makin' about 325 miles, ground speed, right now. Might even get in a little early.

Finally: "We're a touch early, people, so we have to circle for about five minutes. Better put out those cigarettes, now, for we're comin' in. Nice havin' you aboard."

I don't know who this guy was, but all the nursing mothers and grandmas aboard felt as if they were personally handling the controls. They reason that if the boy up front isn't scared, they got nothing to worry about. Which is why I say that the mike is more important than the stewardess. The stewardess can change the baby and oxidize the hangover, but she can't let you in on the important act, which is lighting on the ground alive.

Let's Not Argue Over OAP Aims

Ordinarily cabinet ministers' speeches don't make likely reading. But the one made in Parliament on March 10 by Hon. Paul Martin is an exception.

It gives the whole background of the Old Age Pension situation in Canada. It gives every Canadian who reads it the facts on which to get a clear understanding of what is now at stake.

Anybody can get a free copy of this speech by writing to Mr. Martin and asking for the reprint called "Canada Reviews Old Age Security."

The main feature of Mr. Martin's speech is that he includes complete figures for costs of the various schemes.

Pension Costs At a Glance

Suppose Canada decides to pay everyone of 70 years of age, or over, a pension without means test, starting next year. Here is what Mr. Martin's experts figure it would cost the nation per year:

$30 per month	$242,820,000
$40 per month	$323,760,000
$50 per month	$404,700,000
$60 per month	$485,640,000

Pensions of $60 per month at age 60 such as I have long advocated in this column, would cost the people of Canada $1,174,962,000 in 1951. But as the total number of old folks is increasing the cost would be $1,418,184,000 in 1961 and $1,644,162,000 in 1971.

The federal and provincial governments combined are spending $135 million per year on Old Age Pensions now.

Hence there is no argument that adoption of any one of the more generous schemes will cost somebody more than the present plan.

Somebody Does It Now

But what we will do, in fact, is to put the whole matter of saving for old age on a new and systematic basis.

Somebody has to keep old people now. This is now done either by personal thrift, by younger members of the families, or by old age pensions.

As things now stand, the more thrifty people not only have to pay to stay alive in their old age, but they also have to pay to keep the more thriftless alive.

Under an all-put-in-and-all-take-out scheme, the whole working population would contribute according to capacity — rich most, poor least. Everyone in Canada—rich and poor, white, black, red or grey—would draw out his or her same-amount pension per month.

Future generations will wonder how we could ever have been so dumb as to delay proper pensions so long. A proper plan will prove to be not only a great social advance and humanitarian measure, but it will also prove to be the greatest boon to business ever devised.

Stabilize Buying Power

It will stabilize the purchasing power of the people on a lifetime basis. It will take away from people in years when they do not need money, and it will pay back to the people that same money when they are old and no longer able to earn.

There are a dozen different ways in which we could pay for such pensions. We have plenty of room to argue about such ways. But let us not argue about the objectives.

In this matter, at least, let Canadians think of themselves as just one big family, solving forever the financial worries of its older folks.

Hanging Reform Opposed In House

Private Hanging Abolishment Bill 'Talked Out' In Commons

OTTAWA, June 7.—(CP)—Two lawyers joined in the Commons last night in opposing a suggestion by a business man that hanging be abolished as punishment for murder in this country.

They were Solicitor-General Lapointe, the man who reviews the evidence of murder trials for grounds of clemency, and A. L. Smith (PC—Calgary West), Calgary lawyer, whose work as a crown prosecutor has sent more than one murderer to the gallows.

They "talked out" a private bill introduced by Ross Thatcher (CCF—Moose Jaw), hardware merchant, which proposed the abolition of capital punishment. The bill failed to advance during the hour set aside for study of private legislation.

AS DETERRENT

Mr. Lapointe, son of the late Justice Minister Lapointe, said it was the duty of parliament to retain capital punishment as a deterrent to wilful murder, no matter how distasteful hanging might be.

Mr. Smith said that for wilful murder he was in favor of "hanging by the neck until dead and may God have mercy on your soul."

Mr. Lapointe recalled that a parliamentary committee formed in 1937 to study abolition of capital punishment had decided that there should be no change. It had tried to determine if there was some form of punishment more humane than hanging.

"The type of murderer hanged," he said, "is usually a vicious, cold-blooded killer."

Heir Needs Bail Money

CALGARY, June 7—(CP)—Alger W. Wakefield, in line for a $30,000 inheritance, needs $2,000 in bail now to get himself out of jail here.

Wakefield appeared yesterday in court of appeal to personally plead against a conviction on a charge of attempting to assist in the escape of a jail prisoner.

A Calgary lawyer in the court at the time vouched for Wakefield, saying he knew the 25-year-old man was the son of a wealthy easterner who had died leaving a large estate and that $30,000 was to be Wakefield's share.

Wakefield was remanded to the September sitting while the court obtained information on the attempted jail break.

He is to inherit the $30,000 when he becomes 35 years old.

Sun Yat-Sen's Widow Held

HONG KONG, June 7—(UP)—Madame Sun Yat-Sen, widow of China's revolutionary leader, has been placed under surveillance by the Communists who suspect her of being involved in an anti-Communist plot, the independent overseas Daily News reported from Shanghai today.

Madame Sun became one of six deputy chairmen of the Peiping peoples government when the Communists set up their regime.

But the Shanghia report said she was suspected of having conspired with the so-called "national clique," which allegedly planned to overthrow the pro-Soviet "international clique" at an opportune moment.

Albania Finds 3 Spies Guilty

FRANKFURT, Germany, June 7—(UP)—The official Albanian news agency reported from Tirana today that an Albanian military tribunal had found three persons guilty of espionage in behalf of the United States and sentenced them to death before a firing squad.

They were identified as Ethem Tchako, Kasem Zhupa and Lukman Dufti who were charged with parachuting into Albania July 8 from an Italian military plane.

1,000 Hong Kong Survivors Pensioned

OTTAWA, June 7—(CP)—Veterans Minister Gregg said last night in Commons that more than 1,000 of the 1,415 survivors of the Canadian expeditionary force to Hong Kong now are in receipt of pensions. About 200 more are entitled to treatment for disability.

His department, he said, is keeping a careful watch on the 200 survivors not now disabled.

BAD COMPANY IN EDMONTON BRINGS JAIL

CALGARY, June 7—(CP)—Edmonton received some bad publicity in police court yesterday.

Twenty-year-old William Harrison, sentenced to one year at hard labor for shopbreaking, said he stopped over in Calgary on his way east from Edmonton.

Asked by Magistrate G. H. Rose why he had left Edmonton, Harrison replied, "too much bad company."

Swedish Protest Brings Sharp Reply

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, June 7—(AP)—Russia has rejected sweden's protests against seizure of Swedish fishing vessels in international waters, the foreign office said.

A sharp Russian reply contended that the Swedish trawlers Larex and Marion, seized last February by the Russians, were in Soviet waters.

Time Out

By DICK BEDDOES

LLOYDMINSTER, June 7—The 'Lloydminster Lament' (after tossing my last golf ball on the new Lloydminster course.)

Oh, I am a handicap golfer, verging a bit on the wild,
I gathered my weapons for battle, happy as any child.
My words had been singing and soaring, my irons were crisp to the pin,
So I teed up yesterday at Lloydminster, and felt in my heart that I'd win.

I am long from the tee up the fairway, clearing all briar and bush,
I'm headed for triumph and glory, convinced this course I can crush.
When suddenly I slice to a gully, and there on a stone in the rough,
Were these words on a boulder written, "Brother, this course is tough."

Yet I laughed as I swung my mashie, but things weren't going too fine,
The eight I took was a prelude to the next hole where I got a nine.
Oh I swore in a rage at that effort, blue was the air with my curse,
Beaten and humbled and wilted, I hobbled from awful to worse.

Finally I got myself cornered, in a sand pit which made me cry,
So, my partner looked down in sympathy and tossed me a slug of rye.
But before I drowned my sorrows on that soothing liquid stuff,
These words I scratched on a boulder, "Brother, this course is tough."
(With apologies to Rudyard Kipling.)

★ ★ ★

Yes, sir, this nine-hole golf course they've got in Lloydminster is going to give a lot of divot diggers the screaming Meamies.

And a lot of folk will shudder par on it before mastering its rolling fairways and sand greens.

It is 2,316 yards long, with narrow fairways lined with more poplar trees than Spalding has baseballs.

Your reporter viewed this course yesterday while waiting for the weather to clear for the annual baseball tournament here. And let me say right now that it is credit to Lloyd, albeit tough to play.

Par for the nine holes is 33, or 37 if you are a member of the female species. Myself, I toured it in 69 but then I'm a sportswriter(?) and sports-writers are a peculiar breed of folk.

★ ★ ★

Frank Nundahl, a jeweller who used to be in Red Deer, has done a lot of work on the course this year. So has golf club president Tom Wakeling, and enthusiasts, Bruce Anetey, Irwin Henning and Dick Meanwell.

They haven't got a pro here, but Nundahl and his mates may bring Henry Martell or Pete Olynyk out from Edmonton to conduct a clinic or two this summer.

This is the first full year that the Lloydminster links have been in operation. In a year or two they are planning a swish new club house, possibly a watering system and grass greens.

In the meantime, take my word for it, "Brother, this course is tough."

Curlers To Golf

LOUIS GETS $50,000 FIGHT OFFER

OAKLAND, Calif., June 7.—(BUP)—An offer of $50,000 to retired heavyweight champion Joe Louis to fight Freddy Beshore, young California heavy, here in August, was wired to Louis' manager yesterday.

The offer was made by Jimmy Dundee, matchmaker for the Oakland American Legion.

Dundee said the proposed match would be a 15-round affair, which the California Boxing Commission would be asked to recognize.

'Mr. Murder' Takes Charge As Laverne Baxter Beaten

By Ernie Fedoruk

Al 'Mr. Murder' Mills, the lesser of two 'evils,' with the aid of 'popular' Irish Pat McGill, retained his dominion wrestling tiara at the Stock Pavilion last night.

Mills came back for two straight falls, after dropping the opener to Laverne (Old Toothless) Baxter, in the main exhibition on promoter Al Oeming's weekly rassling presentation.

TOUCHE, TOUCHE!

Frenchman Francois Miquet got the odd fall in three to win over Jerry Meeker in one-half of the semi-windup. The first semi-windup ended in a draw, after Lou Newman and Joe Corbett each captured a fall.

Preliminary ended after 10 minutes of action when Emil Van Velzen received a bad cut over his right eye, forcing him to retire.

The villain in this piece was Nick Albert. However, Albert refused to take the decision and the bout was called a draw.

Van Velzen received the cut when he tumbled through the ropes to bang against the edge of the ring apron. Seven stitches were required to close the gash.

ROUGHNECKS AT WORK

The main event might have been labelled "the Battle of the Roughnecks." Two of the roughest and meanest grapplers to perform on this circuit, Mills and Baxter, clashed with the former's Canadian "title" at stake.

And for a long time it seemed Mills' string of victories in an Edmonton ring would come to an end. Baxter gave the Camrose mauler a terrific going over in the first few minutes. After a series of body slams and a body press, he copped the first fall at 7.50.

Baxter had Mills pinned again seven minutes later but the latter "enjoyed" the safety of the ropes. Mrs. McGill's son, Patrick, referee in this event, broke the clinch and it took Mills only several seconds to even matters.

Mills used a flip and body press to obtain the tying fall at 7.07.

ENDS SUDDENLY

A determined Baxter caught Mr. Murder on the ropes again and using all his illegal tactics, had the Albertan reeling.

The end came at 2.05 as McGill, in breaking the grunt-and-groan tugged at the ropes so hard that both were sent sprawling to the canvas.

Mills landed atop the "Boston Beast" and remained there long enough to pin his opponent for the required time and retain his laurels.

Legion To Work Out

SPEEDY DAVE MILLER HOME FROM ENGLAND

Edmonton-born Dave Miller, accompanied by his bride, arrived home yesterday from England, where he performed with Streatham of the English National Hockey league this past season. Former Edmonton Flyer goalie Keith Woodall was a teammate of Miller's.

Of Woodall, Miller said that he started slowly but "was terrific after Christmas. He was selected for the second team in the all-star balloting, but should have made the first squad."

World amateur champion Edmonton Mercurys played against Streatham while overseas but failed to defeat them. Streatham won two and tied one.

Four Teams Favored 'Lloyd Ball Tourney

By Dick Beddoes
Bulletin Staff Writer

LLOYDMINSTER, June 7—Success of the second annual Lloydminster baseball tournament is assured. It rained in northern Alberta and Saskatchewan Monday, bringing moisture to parched crops and hopes of a bumper year to farmers.

And thus today this border town is teeming with folks from far and near who can afford to spend a few bucks on baseball now that the wheat has been given a drink.

Conservative guessers say the gallery will number nearly 8,000 when the first ball is pitched at 12:00 noon today. The tournament will wind up tomorrow night after being delayed 24 hours due to rain. Fifteen thousand folks are expected for the final game.

Fourteen teams are entered. And the boys who bet in the lobbies of Lloydminster's hotels are making four teams favorites to cop the major share of the $4,600 prize money.

The four are: Delisle, winners last year, Eston, Kamloops and Indian Head.

DELISLE IS NO. 1

Everybody has heard of Delisle, home of the Bentleys, famous for their exploits on hockey rinks across the nation.

The Delisle gang makes a business of winning baseball tournaments, and you can wager the family treasures they'll be loaded for this one.

Eston comes here as an unknown quantity except that they've held the Bentleys to a narrow margin in a couple of appearances this year.

Kamloops finished second a year ago, but the B.C. balltossers are back with the commodity they lacked last season — left-handed pitching.

And Indian Head, if they get here, figure to be rougher than a donkey with a burr under the saddle.

Indian Head is sponsoring a team of Negroes from Jacksonville, Florida, an outfit reputedly picked out by the former National league great, Rogers Hornsby.

But at last word they were still having bus trouble in the northern States, and may have to fly in from Regina.

NOTES AND ANTIDOTES

Included in the DeLisle club are Max and Doug Bentley, and their nephew Bev, former Regina Cap goal-keeper. Sceptre comes here with Bert Olmstead, good-looking, unassuming left-winger with the Chicago Blackhawks last winter.

Kamloops boasts Joe Kanik, former Purity 99 hurler in the Big Four. The B.C. club is relying on Lefty Hannan, from Coulee Dam, Washington, Pete Scott of Vancouver, Paul Prehara and Len Gatien, both from Penticton, for mound strength.

★ ★ ★

The Elks also have Mel Ottem, former first baseman in Edmonton and one-time backfielder with the University of Alberta Golden Bear football team.

The sun shone brightly yesterday and by noon today both diamonds were in fair playing condition. Myself, though, I'd bet a few pretzels on the teams which manipulate best in the soft ground.

★ ★ ★

Edmonton's entry in the tourney won't play until tomorrow, having secured a bye when Saskatoon Legion dropped out. Stan Engel of the Texaco Oilers, is managing the club, and he'll use such as Doug Lane, Jim Kinsman, Mac Kennedy, Jim Kennedy, Charlie Bacon and Jimmy Johnson of Edmonton Senior B and Junior ranks.

Doug Darrah may come down from the city to pitch for the Edmontons in their game against Neilburg tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Edmonton people here for the two-day tournament include Jim Mulcahy, Eddie Huffman, Bus Brown, Danny McDougall, George Behm, Al Dragani, and Nick Jackson, to name a few.

Members of the tournament executive—Joe Schmidt, Charlie Cuthbert, Les Hand, Jack Geisbrecht and Sam Slater—expect to gross nearly $20,000 this year. That includes revenue from gate receipts, car raffle and a carnival. They netted themselves 7,500 beans last year.

CHARLIE ROE VISITS

Racing Executive Confers With Exhibition Officials

Charles F. (Chas.) Roe, operating manager of the R. James Speers Corporation, is in the city. Yesterday the prominent horse-racing executive spent several hours at the Exhibition half-miler, in company of Jim Paul and other Exhibition Association big-wigs.

Between now and late August, two race meetings will be staged at the Exhibition grounds. And the situation is somewhat complicated by reason of the fact that the new grandstand, housing as it does many of the pari-mutuel facilities, is in the process of construction.

"We were just looking the situation over," Mr. Roe said last night, "trying to decide just how I can make the best use of whatever portion of the stand is completed by the time the Fair meeting opens next month, particularly."

Mr. Roe indicated that construction will go right on while the two meetings are in progress.

Commenting on the Calgary spring meeting that concluded Monday, the Winnipeg horseman labelled it "an outstanding success."

"We were looking for a slight recession," he continued. "Instead mutuel play came close to reaching the figure set at the Calgary fall meeting last year, while admissions were up."

From Calgary most of the horses were shipped to Winnipeg, where a 14-day meeting opens June 17. Upwards of 75 Edmonton-owned thoroughbreds will leave for the 'Peg from the Cowtown.

Proceeds of the Winnipeg meeting, to be staged under the sponsorship of the Winnipeg Jockey club, will be channelled into the Manitoba Flood Relief Fund.

Lou Davies, form chart expert, along with Harold Chambers and Jimmy Arnott, of the mutual department, accompanied Mr. Rose to the city from Calgary.

Davies returned to Calgary yesterday.

Dodgers Win 12-8 From Listless Esks

By Stan Moher

Memo to Al (Sliver) Smith: Dear Al: Nobody beats the years. Yours truly, S. Moher.

Really, this shouldn't happen to such a happy-go-lucky young man as Dick Lowe. Eskimo manager Ed Morris has nominated the righthander from Namao to face Dodgers when the local entries in the Big Four Baseball circuit go at it again tonight at Renfrew Park.

Last night it was Dodgers 12, Eskimos 8 in a lackadaisical offering that made one speculate that perhaps most of the athletes suddenly had been cut off the respective payroll of their teams.

Jack Devine was the losing hurler, after spending five and two-thirds unhappy innings on the firing line.

Right off the former Saskatchewan semi-pro ran into a blind switch. In the first inning he all but "killed" himself by issuing three bases-on-balls.

Dodgers' Doug Stewart and Don Bailey added to Devine's discomfiture by nicking him for singles. His left-fielder, Earl Elsey, was all thumbs on a ground ball, the Spalding slipping through to the fence.

Three runs came across.

It was all Dodgers after that, with righthander Al Purvis on the mound for the runaway league leaders working no harder than was necessary, particularly after his mates had staked him to a long 6-0 lead in the first two frames.

Purvis, who saw himself quite a chunk of Europe while touring with the puckchasing Mercurys last winter, was touched for 13 hits by the listless Eskimos. However, seen of these came over the last three innings, with Dodgers already out in front 12-2.

★ ★ ★

Dodgers finally chased Devine in the sixth inning, after shortstop Len Kerlan had passed up a ground ball with two away. Ten men in all faced the Esk starter and his immediate successor, 44-year-old Al (Sliver) Smith.

The veteran Smith pitched six balls in all, the breakdown being as follows: wild pitch, hit-batsman, hit-batsman, sharp single (by Mike McInerney), sharper single (Ed Tanner), ball.

Mercifully Tanner was out, trying to steal second, to finally retire the side.

By this time the cash register had rung up six more runs. Lowe batted for Smith in the seventh and Ed (Lefty) Belter finished off for the Eskimos.

Dodger third-sacker Des O'Connor, with three hits in five trips, including a pair of doubles, paced the rappers of both clubs.

'Sugar Ray' Eyes LaMotta's Title

By Orlo Robertson

PHILADELPHIA, June 7—(AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson, the master craftsman of the ring, has a one-state interest in the middleweight crown after doing a workmanlike job on stocky Robert Villemain of France.

But the lanky Sugar from New York definitely would like recognition in the other 47 states—even to the extent of giving up his welterweight title—before retiring in two years.

CROWD SMALL

Robinson won the Pennsylvania version of the 160-pound championship Monday night before a disappointing crowd of 22,004 which paid $119,007 to see the fight at Philadelphia's huge Municipal Stadium.

He displayed a variety of blows that, while not able to knock out the squat Frenchman, caused Villemain to say in his dressing room:

"He's a real champion. He hits harder than any man I ever met."

"It's a wonderful thrill to win the world's middleweight championship, even if it's only for the State of Pennsylvania," said Robinson in his dressing room.

"Now I'd like to be champion of the entire world," he added.

And to that end, Sugar Ray said he is ready to meet Jake La Motta, recognized 160-pound king.

READY TO MAKE DEAL

"If Jake will fight me, we can make a deal," he said, and then laughingly added: "But if it is in Pennsylvania remember he'll be the challenger and I'll want the champion's end of the purse."

While the National Boxing Association declined to go along with the Pennsylvania commission in recognizing the bout as a championship affair, it ruled that the winner of the La Motta-Rocky Graziano fight in New York June 28 must meet Robinson within 90 days.

Robinson's only defeat in 111 bouts was at the hands of La Motta. But after that setback he walloped Jake four times.

Lothian Spark Plug In Legion Triumph

Sparked by the brilliant playmaking of 15-year-old Bobby Lothian, North Side Legion blanked Ukraina 4-0 in a Junior Soccer league game at Clarke Stadium last night.

The young outside-right wing figured in three of his team's four markers. He scored Legion's third goal.

Billy Monaghan, Peter Gunn and Gay Breadmore tallied the other goals.

Breadmore opened scoring at the 15:00 minute mark, as he headed into the net after receiving a perfect cross pass from Lothian.

Gunn shot Legion ahead 2-0 as he out-guessed Ukraina goalie Slywka at the 30-minute mark, his shot coming from close in.

Breadmore, who scored the game's prettiest goal, returned the favor to Lothian by setting the latter up on his marker. Outside-left Breadmore crossed the melon to Lothian, who was johnny-on-the-spot to push it across the goal-line.

Monaghan tallied the only marker of the second half. Once again it was Lothian was assisted on the play. He made a perfect corner kick for Monaghan to head home.

Although outscored in the first half, Ukraina held a slight edge in territorial play but were unable to score. Last night's was one of the best games played to date.

OPEN LETTER TO . . .

Open letter to Johnny Beatty: It's good to see you back at Renfrew, even if only for a few nights. Understand you've travelled a heap since leaving here for Alaska, close to 18 months ago.

Alaska, then Florida—to the Elgin Air Base, near Pensacola. Between times that big baseball tournament at the Polo Grounds in New York. Last September it was, when Durocher had his Giants on the road, wasn't it Johnny?

They tell me you escorted the Ladd Field (Alaska) team to the tourney, finishing in the quarter-finals. Not bad, John, not bad.

Too bad about General Gaffney dying. He was well known in Edmonton. Guess you knew him better than anyone, having been his aide-de-camp for so long.

* * * *

How's it with the wife and two little daughters? Bet Mrs. Beatty is tickled at the chance to hello to her Edmonton friends again.

* * * *

Will you be staying in the United States Air Force, John? Or do you plan to chuck it all, once your hitch is up, and rejoin John Ducey in the operation of Renfrew Park?

Suppose you got an eyeful at the park last night, particularly out of the new press-box. Just as well Ducey moved us up there, at long last. The old p.b., under the stands, was submerged by three-four feet of water this spring.

And what a sight for sore eyes second base has proven.

* * * *

Open letter to rassler Emil Van Velzen: Understand a Cow Palace ring post hauled off and hit you last night and you went for seven stitches.

Tsk, tsk, Emil.

Most rasslers go for years without coming up with anything more serious than cauliflower ears. Be careful this incident doesn't cost you your union card.

What did Goldstick think about it?

* * * *

Open letter to John Ducey, c/o Lloydminster Baseball tournament: Advise you keep an eye on Harry Ornest, who's 'working' that tournament with you.

Ornest is young, impetuous, might blow an important decision or two in next couple of days. Then you're both in a jackpot.

You know how these young guys operate, John. Like Ornest says, he sees 'em and calls 'em as they are. Not like in the old days, when an umpire called 'em as he saw 'em.

If things get real rough, think I can arrange have Seeing-Eye-Dog sent post-haste..

* * * *

Open letter to Harry Ornest, c/o Lloydminster Baseball tournament: Advise you keep an eye on John Ducey.

Ducey isn't as young as he used to be. He's slowing down. Could be he might miss a couple of close ones in next couple of days. Then you're both bagged.

Ducey used to brag that he never missed one "from the heart." That's old school stuff, eh Harry?

And say, Harry, if he starts harping on 'umpiring techniques' just humor him, won't you?

Be seeing you.

* * * *

Open letter to Frank Adamson and Jack Ferris, c/o Lacombe Baseball tournament: Sorry about that picture ball-up yesterday.

Have you decided who got the better—or the worst—of the deal? Bet you came in for a rib or two from Wes Jackson, Harry Leggett and more of your friends.

See you on the 20th.

* * * *

Open letter to Ed Morris, manager Eskimo Baseball team: What about a shot of benzedrine for each of your guys when you take on the Dodgers?

They say it's harmless and no more habit forming than hard work. Might do the trick, Ed.

* * * *

Open letter to Ava Gardner: I can dream, can't I?

Open letter to Goldstick: How are you and Doug Hardy hitting it off these times?

'TRIBUNE' VICTOR IN FLOOD RELIEF TILT

WINNIPEG, June 7.—(CP)—The Tribune All-Stars last night downed the Free Press All-Stars 8-4, in an exhibition baseball game before 2,800 fans, with proceeds going to the Manitoba Flood Relief Fund.

Players were chosen from the five-team Manitoba-Dakota loop.

Lillord Cobb, who started on the mound for the Tribune squad, was credited with the victory. Bob Cunningham was the losing pitcher.

A four-run inning was the turning point in the otherwise evenly matched contest.

Holmgren Ousted In Tennis Upset

Tommy Chambers, once a starry member of the Civil Service Tennis club, was back visiting his old haunts last night.

And as though to provide something extra special in the way of fireworks Peggy Colville was steady enough of racquet to put over an upset as play continued in the annual tournament.

Miss Colville, sister of the famous Colville brothers, Neil and Mac, of hockey fame, served up a straight set trimming to Cal Holmgren. Score was 8-6, 6-3.

Miss Holmgren was the second seeded entry in the ladies singles event to head for the sidelines, since play started at the week-end.

In a first round match Grace Wilson, seeded No. 4, was ousted by Allyson Shephard.

Bill Logan, winner of the Ferris cup in the 1949 provincial tourney, advanced in men's singles play, defeating Graham Cathro 6-1, 4-6, 6-4 after a prolonged struggle.

Defending men's doubles champions, Johnny Stott, and Dr. Hal Richard, chased Nichols-Hyam off the courts, almost, thumping them 6-0, 6-0.

Aforementioned Tommy Chambers, who learned his tennis in the Coal Branch, was a standout hereabout in the early 1930s. He lives in Vancouver these times.

TUESDAY RESULTS

Logan def. Cathro 6-1, 4-6, 6-4; Thorburn def. Copp 6-3, 6-4; M. Forrester def. Tweed 6-3, 2-6, 6-4; Colville def. Holmgren 8-6, 6-3; H. R. Williams Trottier def. Merryweather-Richardson., (Novice).

MEASURING Dick Wakefield, cigar in mouth, for Oakland Pacific Coast league uniform is teammate Clyde Shoun, former National league southpaw. Tigers' original bonus baby, who became a Yankee problem child, reported to Oaks, signed, said he wasn't in shape, but promised to break in within few days as pinch-hitter.

NATIONAL DEADLOCKED

Indians Scalp Yankees by 16-2

NEW YORK, June 7 — (CP) — Lusty stickwork by Detroit and Cleveland hitters combined yesterday to topple the world champion New York Yankees from the American league lead.

While Detroit's red-hot Tigers were decisioning Washington Senators 11-8 for their seventh straight win, Indians were rocking Yankee pitching for 22 hits and a 16-2 victory.

CHISOX DOWN BOSOX

Chicago White Sox also did some lusty hitting over in Boston while registering an 8-4 win over Red Sox and snapping Boston's victory streak at four games. Five of the winners' runs came on homers, two by Gus Zernial.

St. Louis Browns rallied for three runs in each of the sixth and seventh innings to defeat Philadelphia 6-5 and advanced to within eight percentage points of seventh place, now held by the A's.

Chicago Cubs forced a change in National league standings by edging Brooklyn Dodgers 7-6 in 10 innings. Victory was accomplished largely on the home-run production of Bill Serena.

For Brooklyn, the loss dumped them into a tie with St. Louis Cardinals who measured Philadelphia Phils 5-4 in a night game.

BRAVES SLUG REDS 8-3

At Cincinnati, disaster overtook Reds in the ninth-inning as Boston Braves scored five times for an 8-3 triumph. New York Giants were powered by Bobby Thomson's home run bat to a 10-4 triumph over the hapless Pittsburgh Pirates.

Ponderous Luke Easter cracked two singles, a double and a triple to pace Cleveland's attack. Joe Gordon and Jim Hegan chipped in with home runs while Bob Kennedy connected for four singles.

DIMAG HITS NINTH

Joe Dimaggio accounted for New York's second run in the fourth inning with a home run—his ninth of the year and the 326th of his career.

Ted Williams walloped his 14th home run in Boston's losing cause.

Scona Shops Edge Prudhams

Third baseman Ray Robbins' run in the 12th inning last night gave Scona Shops a 9-8 triumph over Prudhams in a South Side Intermediate league game played at South Side Athletic grounds.

With one out in the 12th, Robbins doubled to right and went to third as pitcher Nat Ostfield was being thrown out at first.

A wild pitch by Ray Templeman allowed him to score the winner.

Bill Kitt hit a two-run homer for the winners in the sixth inning.

Mack Paces Runte's Win

Canucks and Runte's Outlaws were winners in Senior 'B' Baseball league games played last night.

At Diamond park Canucks took the measure of Westminster Royals 9-3. Outlaws went on a slugging spree and drubbed RCAF 15-3 on the RCAF diamond.

Mike Mack scattered four hits and struck out 14 to pace Runte's to their win. His mates climbed on the offerings of Wallis and Spiers for 13 safeties.

Canuck pitcher Bill Ewasiuk helped win his own game by homering in the fifth frame. Ed Miskiw of Canucks was top hitter with three-for-five.

Polly Riley Is Medalist

FORT WORTH, Texas, June 7—Steady-stroking Polly Riley of Fort Worth, Texas, fired a one-over-par 74 yesterday to win medal honors in the 20th annual Trans-Mississippi Women's golf tourney.

Defending champ Betsy Rawls had trouble, carding an 81 on the Lakewood Country Club course at Dallas.

Game Postponed

CALGARY, June 7—Last night's scheduled Big Four Inter-City baseball league game here between Buffaloes and Purity was postponed due to cold weather.

SAYS HIS SECRETARY

Louis Not Interested In Fighting Savold

NEW LISKEARD, Ont., June 7.—(CP).—Joe Louis, former world's heavyweight boxing champion, does not intend to take a crack at Lee Savold's new heavyweight crown, Louis' secretary said last night.

The secretary, Leonard Reed, was asked if Joe intended to take on the Englewood, N.J., battler who won the British and European versions of the world heavyweight title yesterday, defeating Bruce Woodcock of England at London.

"Joe certainly does not intend to take a crack at him," replied Reed. "The proper thing would be for the winner to take on Ezzard Charles, the current champion. Joe hasn't made his mind up yet on any comeback. His next statement in this regard will depend on what the doctors say about Ezzard Charles."

Charles, recognied as world champion by the United States National Boxing Association, now is laid up with a heart ailment.

The NBA covers all the states except New York, which never recognized a successor to Louis after his retirement in 1949.

Louis, who is travelling through Ontario with a circus, was not available for comment. New Liskeard is some 380 miles north of Toronto.

GOLF NOTES

Steer Cup To Mrs. Hopps

Here's one instance where golf runs in 'the family.' Not only is A. J. (Red) Hopps recognized as one of the city's top male shotmakers, but as well his wife steps out every now and then to prove that he's not the only golfer on the beach.

Mrs. Hopps downed Betty Ann Loveseth 4 and 3 in the final of the Steer cup, a handicap competition played annually by the ladies of Mayfair Golf and Country club.

Mrs. Hopps, a former Mayfair ladies champion (1948), 'gave away' five strokes to Miss Loveseth but still turned in a tidy triumph.

There's a spot of face-lifting going on at the Country Club these times, what with the lounge, beverage room and some portions of the staff quarters coming in for a renovating.

The beverage room is resplendent with new tables and chairs, brightly colored jobs that have added considerably to the attractiveness of that particular corner. As well they have served to provide a new, streamlined look.

New furniture has been ordered for the lounge.

Tommy Morrison, Mayfair manager, is authority for the statement that the new locker room will be ready for use within two weeks. They've been waiting for this a long time at the south side layout.

Incidently Morrison, like others who are keenly interested in the condition of fairways and greens, got a real thrill out of Monday's heavy rain.

Charlie Scott, secretary of the Edmonton Golf Association, announced yesterday that the City Amateur will not be held until the second week in August. The "late spring" was given as the reason for setting the amateur back . . . Vern Mohs, who hasn't been playing much this year, is the defending champion.

In the United States recently a 'teen-ager fired a hole-in-one within a week of 'insuring' with Lloyd's of London. She collected $400, or 100 times what the policy cost her.

Byron Nelson, no longer prominent in tournament play across the line, was so nervous before starting a round he couldn't eat . . . Mrs. 'Red' Hopps, winner of the Steer cup as mentioned, leaves for the coast at the end of the week.

Mayfair will be the host club for the Seniors tourney, next month . . . Bobby Jones, recently operated on for a back condition, made his 'grand-slam'—British Amateur and Open, United States Amateur and Open—in 1930.

Fastballers In Two Games

Action will be resumed at Kingsway tonight with a doubleheader, first game to start at 7.00 o'clock.

Hustling young South Side Athletics will be gunning for their second win in senior ladies' league by upsetting Colin Kilburn-Doug Anderson coached Walk-Rite.

Athletics are due to explode and tonight may be 'it'. Their only win to date has come at the expense of Walkies.

The nightcap will feature Alex Pringle's Singers and Anavets in a senior men's clash. A win for Singers will break a first place tie with Pontiacs.

St. Pats To Drill

Oliver St. Pats will work out at Clarke Stadium tomorrow night at 7:00 o'clock in preparation for Saturday's senior league game with Ukraina.

Contracts, Icing-Puck Rule Come Under CAHA Study

BANFF, June 7— (CP) — Hockey bigwigs from Canada, the United States and as far away as England were gathered here awaiting the official opening of the annual general meeting of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association today.

The convention—which is expected to see the finish of the business completed by Friday night—started with a closed meeting of the rules and resolutions committee yesterday. The suggestions of the committee are slated to go before the opening meeting today.

Two known points to be brought up are the "icing-the-puck" rule and the signing of junior and senior players to contracts. At present some are signed to contracts but the majority are inked only to a CAHA player's form.

If the contract suggestion goes through it will give Canada's hockey ruling body a tighter hold on players in junior and senior ranks. It also will lend more protection to the clubs.

Also a new president will be declared at the convention.

Al Pickard of Regina, who this season completed his third year at the helm, has indicated he doesn't plan to run for re-election.

Doug Grimston of New Westminster, first vice-president, is next in line for Pickard's post but nevertheless an election will be held and officials say Grimston doesn't automatically take over.

As well as delegates from all branches in Canada, also present are Bunny Aherne, secretary of the British Ice Hockey association, and Thomas Lockhart of New York, president of the United States Hockey Association.

Soccer Juniors In Twin-Bill

Two games are scheduled tonight in the City Junior Soccer league.

At Clarke Stadium, Cloverdale plays North Side Legion, while at South Side Athletic grounds, Canadians will meet South Side.

Both games will commence at 7.00 o'clock.

PAIR CALIFORNIANS TO JOIN ESKIMOS

By remote control from Lloydminster, John Ducey, general manager of Eskimos, announced last night that his Big Four Baseball league entry had signed a pair of California college stars for the balance of the schedule.

Shortstop Bob Lillis, University of Southern California, and first-sacker George Braddish also of Los Angeles, are the pair in question. They are due to join Esks Friday, in time for the opening game of the week-end series, against Calgary Purity.

Coming of the Californians probably means that Jack McGill, currently operating at first base for the Esks, will move to left-field, while shortstop Len Karlson will move over to third base.

Woodcock Easy For Lee Savold

By Ben Phlegar

LONDON, June 7—(AP)—Lee Savold of the United States, beat Bruce Woodcock of England into a bloody mass in four rounds last night to win the British and European versions of the world heavyweight title.

A sell-out crowd of 50,000 persons saw the battle, scheduled for 15 rounds, at White City Stadium.

CUT OVER EYE

The end came for Woodcock as the bell rang for the end of the fourth round. The Englewood, N.J., fighter had belted the British champion from Doncaster, Yorkshire, savagely and opened a two-inch gash over his left eye.

As blood gushed from the wound, from Woodcock's nose, and from a cut under his mouth, his seconds threw a towel into the ring when the bell sounded.

Tom Hurst, Woodcock's manager, yelled at the handler: "Pick that up." Then Hurst took a look at Bruce's eye and called over referee Andrew Smith to tell him Woodcock could not go on.

Savold, five years older but in perfect condition, stood almost unmarked although he had taken four times as many punches as the 29-year-old Briton during his career.

WELL PLANNED EFFORT

The New Jersey veteran had fought the battle just as he had planned it—cool, calm and unhurried. Woodcock whipped Savold here on a foul in the fourth round, Dec. 6, 1948.

The wild-punching Woodcock, who landed at least a dozen sizzling rights to Savold's head, never once made him wince.

Savold, of course, is not recognized world-wide as heavyweight champ. The United States National Boxing Association, numbering all the states except New York, calls Ezzard Charles of Cincinnati its champion. Charles now is on the shelf because of a heart ailment.

New York state never recognized a successor to Joe Louis after he retired March 1, 1949.

Savold at 34, is the oldest man ever to win even this limited version of the heavyweight crown. He weighed 192 to 190½ for Woodcock.

BOBBY BROWN GRADUATES FROM TULANE

NEW ORLEANS, June 7—(AP)—New York Yankee third-baseman, Bobby Brown, yesterday became Dr. Robert Brown after being graduated from Tulane University medical school here.

No reference was made to his major-league baseball career as his name was called with the other members of the graduating class.

The 26-year-old San Francisco ball player flew here for the commencement exercises. He left later in the day to rejoin the Yankees.

NEW YORK (Ridgewood Grove)—(UP)—Paddy de Marco, 136½, Brooklyn, N.Y., outpointed Ruben Davis, 132, Fall River, Mass.

Magazine Gives Angle On Farouk's Decision

LONDON, June 7.—(UP)—King Farouk of Egypt put off marriage of young Narriman Sadek only because his closest advisers warned him it would mean the end of his dynasty, the weekly Picture Post said today.

Even then, the Post said, Farouk apparently agreed reluctantly to no more than a delay, and "there is ample evidence that Miss Sadek is being groomed for the queenship."

The Post published an article entitled "The Troubles of King Farouk." It was written by "a business man just back from Egypt" who claimed "an inside knowledge of palace affairs."

SHOOK EGYPT

"The story of how the king stepped in practically on the eve of Miss Sadek's marriage to a young Egyptian official working with the United Nations and intimated that no wedding would take place as he himself was going to marry the girl, shook Egypt as nothing the king had previously done had succeeded in doing," the article said.

"So alarming was public reaction that the other members of the royal family, headed by the king's uncle and—until he has a son—heir, 75-year-old Prince Mohammed Aly, held a special meeting at the palace and begged Farouk not to go through with his prroposed marriage.

END OF DYNASTY

"'If you do,' he was warned, 'it will be the end of your dynasty.' And his sisters loaded their jewelry, their clothes and a few mink coats and sent them to Switzerland—just in case.

"In response to these warnings, re-emphasized by his cabinet ministers, all the king would consent to was a postponement. Since then, there is ample evidence that Miss Sadek is being groomed for queenship.

"It is understood that the wedding will take place next spring, if it has not, as is widely alleged, in fact already been held."

Garson Urges Trade Move As Bulwark

REGINA, June 7—(CP)—Multilateral trade by the west would be an effective bulwark against the Communist economic and military threat, justice minister Stuart Garson said yesterday.

He was addressing a luncheon meeting here sponsored by Regina chamber of commerce on behalf of delegates to the annual convention of Saskatchewan retail merchants association.

Wide international trading, rather than controls and restrictions would maintain prosperity in Canada and other democracies, he said.

PROPOSAL RAPPED

Mr. Garson rapped a proposal by CCF leader M. J. Coldwell by which Canada should accept sterling payment for exports overseas and pay Canadian exporters with "rubber money" created by the Bank of Canada.

"The new money would tend to bring about inflation which could only be held in check by controls," the justice minister said.

"The federal government opposes this and we are supported by the unhappy history of controls in this country. Controls had a full trial in the thirties when they actually contributed to the depression."

Canada should not turn away from multi-lateral trading policies which have maintained prosperity," he said.

Seed Fair Date Set for June 27

ATHABASCA, June 7—Third annual forage crop seed fair sponsored by the board of trade of Athabasca and district will be held in Athabasca on June 27.

Formerly the territory involved has been restricted to the greater Athabasca district, but this year the Lac La Biche area has been added. Several trophies and other awards will be presented.

A. M. Wilson, field crops commissioner and M. Weir, district inspector of plant products division, federal department of agriculture, will lead discussion on topics, including new varieties of forage crops, federal regulations on the growing of forage and grain seeds and diseases and insects.

Japanese Bishop Enters Australia

SYDNEY, Australia, June 7.—(Reuters)—The first Japanese to be admitted to Australia since the end of the war arrived yesterday by air from New Zealand.

He is Dr. Michael Yashiro, presiding bishop of the Church of England in Japan, who will attend an Anglican conference here.

Thorsby Board Names Officers

THORSBY, June 7—Former vice-president, William Ternoway was elected president of Thorsby board of trade, at their recent meeting. He replaces M. Samordzic, who resigned recently.

Secretary-treasurer A. Ponech also resigned, to take up his new position at the bank branch at Leduc. The vacancy was filled by R. Spacinsky. M. Perley was elected vice-president.

Following the meeting, a smoker was held, at which Mr. Ponech was presented with an electric clock as a farewell gift.

Mrs. B. G. Kobitzsch Dies at Hardisty

HARDISTY, June 7—Funeral service was held in the IOOF Hall Sunday for Mrs. B. G. Kobitzsch, oldtimer or Hardisty district who died last week.

She is survived by eight children, 22 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Interment was in Hardisty Cemetery.

Affiliations Yardstick Gives President A Pain

WASHINGTON, June 7.—(UP)—President Truman says all the fuss about what organizations a man belongs to gives him "a pain in the neck."

He says he's probably joined some that he wishes he hadn't, but he can't see that it hurt him any.

The president let his hair down about it in a letter to Clyde A. Lewis, commander-in-chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The letter, in reply to one written by Lewis, was reported to have set VFW officials back on their heels.

Lewis had objected to the president's selection of Thomas K. Finletter as secretary of the air force on grounds he had been active in United World Federalists, Inc., an organization VFW doesn't like.

"All this howl about organizations a fellow belongs to gives me a pain in the neck," the president wrote. "I'd be willing to bet my right eye that you yourself and I have joined some organizations that we wish we hadn't. It hasn't hurt me any and I don't think it has hurt you any."

OVER CRITICISM

The president also took a crack at veterans groups for their criticism of public officials. He said they should spend less time tearing people down, and more time looking for their good points.

Finletter is a former New York lawyer who headed a presidential commission on air power that fathered the concept of a 71-group air force. Prior to his appointment as air secretary, he was an economic co-operation administration mission chief in London.

In 1947 he became a member of the executive council of World Federalists, a group seeking world peace through federation. He resigned from this post in May, 1948, to leave for London for ECA.

DELIGHTFUL TO SMOKE

THIS CUTE miss at Denver, Colo., was all set for a week-end of fun, when a freak spring snowstorm changed her plans. Also hurt by unseasonable snow and cold were 50,000 budding trees.

Reds Agree On Boundary

BERLIN, June 7—(UP)—Eastern Germany and Poland have agreed to recognize the disputed Oder-Neisse line as their permanent boundary despite protests of the Western Powers and West Germany, the East German News Agency ADN said today.

The agency said agreement on the frontier between the two Communist states was reached yesterday in negotiations in Warsaw. The negotiators also agreed on a trade treaty and a "cultural cooperation" pact.

The agreements were negotiated by an East German delegation headed by Deputy Premier Walter Ulbricht, which arrived in Warsaw Monday, and a Polish group headed by Premier Josef Cyrankiewicz.

The first commercial shipment of tea from India was sent to London in 1838 by a retired naval officer, Charles Alexander Bruce.

Avro Jetliners Get Aussie Bid

Canadian Jets Soon Will Operate Over Australia

SYDNEY, Australia, June 7.—(BUP)—Canada's Avro jetliner will operate on regular transport flights across the Australian continent before the end of 1950, airline officials said today.

Spokesmen for Trans-Australia Airlines said the Canadian-built C-102 Avro jetliner had replaced Britain's jet-powered "Comet" in the race to capture the Australian jet market.

TAA offered to handle the Avro on its commercial flying tests in Australia and appeared destined to become the first airline in the world to operate a jet-powered airline commercially.

THERE BY OCTOBER

The first of the new-type aircraft was expected to arrive in Australia by October.

The Canadian plane is made to measure for Australian flights between the larger cities, John Watkins, superintendent of TAA organization, said.

Most cities on this huge island are about 250 to 650 miles apart and, according to Watkins, this would fit in nicely with Avro's inter-city plans.

He said the unusually fast plane would be able to make the trip from Sydney to Melbourne in an hour and five minutes compared with the two hours it takes conventional, propellor-driven aircraft.

Sydney to Canberra, the national capital, would take about 20 minutes, and Sydney to Brisbane about an hour and 10 minutes, he said.

Aviation experts here conceded the Canadian-built plane definitely had the edge over the British Comet where Australian commercial contracts were concerned. The Comet is not expected to make its debut here until the middle of next year.

Introduction of the Avro jetliner in the Australian air scene will also see renewal of a private war between the TAA and the Australian National Airways, which has negotiated with British contractors for the new Vickers' Viscount, in production in England.

But industry sources here said the C-102, with its record-breaking performances, would be a tough competitor.

Junior Farm Group Votes

James Ellett, 21-year-old Morinville farm youth leader, was elected president of the Alberta Junior Farmers' union, at the annual convention held yesterday at the University of Alberta.

Other executives named by the 200 delegates to the one-day convention were: Bruce Ellis, 23, of Hubalta, first vice-president; and Peter Berger, 21, Parkland, second vice-president.

A highlight of the convention was the presentation of the union's candidate for queen of the Calgary Stampede, pretty 23-year-old Eileen Beckner of Carstairs, who was enthusiastically received as she came out in white sombrero and cowgirl trimmings.

FARMER'S IMPORTANCE

Importance of the farmer in the economy of the world was stressed by K. G. Surbeck, Alberta Co-operative wholesale feed division.

"Food is a weapon," he told the delegates. "We either feed people or we fight them."

Peace of the world will depend on the farmers' ability to feed its starving population, he said.

Chairman was Edward Ness, fieldman for Alberta Wheat Pool.

6,000 Hard Coal Miners Return

LANSFORD, Pa., June 7.—(AP)—Six thousand striking hard-coal miners returned to work yesterday in the Panther Valley, ending a work stoppage over shift hours that started last Wednesday.

The miners returned to the Lehigh Navigation Coal Company's pits for their regular morning shift, acting under a back-to-work order by the Panther Valley general mine committee.

Seized Beaver Skins Released

SUDBURY, Ont., June 7—(CP)—Some $90,000 worth of beaver skins seized recently in this area are being released to dealers, lands and forests department officials said yesterday. They said the furs were seized because their American buyer had not taken out an export licence.

Officials were inclined to discount earlier reports that the buyer was linked with a fur-smuggling ring. They indicated, however, that a charge will be laid against the New York man if he returned to Canada. They did not identify him.

Not Much Sense

Of course this had to happen sooner or later: Stranger just in off the transcontinental train asked directions to the Glenton Hotel.

Isn't it just about time for that first heat wave?

Biggest mystery I know of: How did mosquitoes get through last winter without freezing to death?

District Patriots

Some people are real patriots when it comes to where they live.

I got thinking about this after I ran into Allan Short and Mrs. Short on Jasper Avenue last night.

The Shorts recently had to move from the home they lived in for decades at 10812 98 avenue.

The old Short residence was torn down to make way for the new Provincial Building.

Allan, who is solicitor at the Department of Veterans' Affairs, says the move sure takes some time getting used to.

★ ★ ★ ★

Take Cameron MacKinnon, for instance.

One time when Cameron was a little shaver (back around the time Ladysmith was captured), he mentioned his family was moving.

Little Cameron fairly sizzled when somebody suggested the MacKinnons might perhaps be moving to the north side.

Then there's Bill Fearon, top salesman for Metals Ltd.

Bill came from England to Bonnie Doon when he was a kid around the time World War 1 broke out. He's still living on the south side and in Bonnie Doon.

Furthermore, Bill's brothers Steve and John still live on the south side.

Other veteran southsiders are Bill Shelton of the CNR Express and Harold Williams of Eaton's store furniture department.

Sidney Sheppard, dynamic manager of Alberta Livestock co-operative.

Sid's been living near the eastern city limits of the south side since shortly after the Battle of Gettysburg.

In fact there are some southsiders who still don't recognize the amalgamation of 1913.

★ ★ ★ ★

I think this loyalty to districts is a mighty fine thing. I'm all for it. I've moved 22 times since coming to Edmonton.

Landlords are funny about this business of paying rent, you know.

Boost for Edmonton

Had a nice chat with John Beatty last night. John, of course, is back in the uniform of Uncle Sam again after a sojourn here when he partnered with John Ducey in the Renfrew baseball park venture.

He's presently based at Elgin Field, Florida, a captain with the U.S. Air Force.

A lot of people might be jealous of John, living down there on the Florida beaches. But John would come back to Edmonton in a hurry if he had the chance.

★ ★ ★ ★

Here's what he says about Florida:

"Too many snakes, too many bugs and too hot. You just can't beat this country around Edmonton."

Thank you very much Mr. Beatty on behalf of Edmonton Chamber of Commerce. You sure make a fellow think of how lucky he is up here in Edmonton.

Too bad you weren't here last January. Never saw a single bug all through February, did we folks?

★ ★ ★ ★

A very goodnight to all and especially to people who live on the south side.

Reduction Is Sought In Corner Billboards

The city will be asked to aid in eliminating "hazardous" signs and billboards at intersections and curves.

Action will be sought by the Alberta Motor Association following complaints from directors large billboards are creating blind spots for drivers on certain roads within the city limits.

The city can apply for authority to handle the situation, although at present it is up the individual property owner who leases his property for the erection of signs, said C. H. Grant, KC, director.

At present city roads on the outskirts are a succession of boards screening the highway especially coming in from the south, directors said.

Fines Levied Upon Drivers

Two Edmonton men, pleading guilty to dangerous driving charges, received fines totalling $90 yesterday in police court.

Gordon Whitley also lost his right to drive for three months. He was at the wheel of his car at 4:10 Saturday morning when it struck a telephone pole on Scona hill near 93 avenue, mounted the sidewalk and plunged 30 feet over the side onto a garden. He was also fined $50.

In Clyde Walker's case, Magistrate S. G. Main held the mishap in which the accused was involved was "in the nature of an error of judgment.' Walker, while driving his light truck up Grierson hill at 1:05 a.m. Sunday, passed a small car and while on the wrong side of the road hit two other vehicles.

Walker's truck rolled over twice. None of the drivers involved were injured.

Magistrate Main, noting the road was under construction at the time, decided not to suspend the licence of the accused, who requires his truck in his business. Fine of $40 was imposed.

Farmers Seek Disallowance Of Higher Rate

The Farmers' Union of Alberta will ask that recently authorized railway freight rate increase be disallowed.

The executive contends the federal cabinet has this power by order-in-council and has wired Prime Minister St. Laurent to take such action, Carl J. Stimpfle, president, announced today.

Mr. Stimpfle said the Board of Transport Commissioners' recent decision to boost the rate has added seriously to the discriminatory aspects already existing in Canada's freight rate structure, and that Alberta farmers would be among those hardest hit.

He said that the FUA is backing the Alberta government's request for a removal of the increase.

New Help in Uranium Search

REVOLUTION in vital search for uranium is expected through the "scintillometer," all-Canadian instrument 290 times as sensitive as geiger counter. Edmonton mining men were highly interested in instrument's possibilities in north. L. E. Drummond, right, secretary-manager of Alberta and Northwest Chamber of Mines, checks instrument with T. W. "Tom" Hall, vice-president of Canadian Electronics.

AMA Offers Road Signs

Directional and distance sign posts for northern Alberta secondary roads are sought by the Alberta Motor Association.

The signposts carrying the emblem of the association and giving distances from cities and towns are being furnished free to the smaller communities by the AMA.

The campaign with boards of trade and other interested groups will be carried on with a view to having all roads clearly marked as soon as possible, directors were told at a noon meeting Tuesday.

BUILDING READY

The new Alberta Motor Association Building at 99 street and 101A avenue is nearly ready for occupancy.

Painting and decorating work is being carried on as speedily as possible, association directors were told Tuesday.

The new building will be open for inspection by the directors this week.

No decision has been made as to when the AMA will make the change from their present premises.

Trade Assistants Visit City Monday

Two assistant trade commissioners touring Western Canada will visit Edmonton on Monday.

Accompanied by O. G. Stoner, formerly of the economics division of the department of external affairs, the commissioners, W. G. Pybus and K. G. Ramsay, will visit the oilfields and have discussions with officials of the Imperial Oil Company Ltd.

They will also visit the department of industries and labor, Northwest Industries and other plants in the city, in addition to calling on the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce.

Following the trip Mr. Pybus will be posted to The Hague, Holland; Mr. Ramsay to Stockholm, Sweden and Mr. Stoner to Paris, France.

Plans for visit were arranged by Canadian Manufacturers' Association's Edmonton office.

Didsbury In Need Of Home for Aged

DIDSBURY, June 7—A campaign is underway in Didsbury to build a home for the aged.

Several organizations have offered backing.

There are a number of aged people in the district in need of attention and the hospital is not able to supply accomodation for them.

CANCER FUND HITS $43,000

Northern Alberta cancer fund yesterday rose to $43,215 following contributions from three sources.

Employes of the Canadian National Railways contributed $245, a campaign under the direction of Mrs. Florence Snyder in the Botha district raised $66.35 and three Camrose residents contributed $36. Objective is $60,000.

Court Orders Higher Trial

Howard L. Paquette, no fixed address, has been committed for trial to Supreme Court on a charge of robbery with violence.

In Police Court preliminary hearing Tuesday afternoon, Magistrate S. G. Main found there was sufficient evidence that Paquette had used violence in robbing Charles Auger, 9643-103 avenue, early May 28 to justify a Supreme Court trial.

Auger said he had been attacked on an east end street shortly after midnight last Saturday.

He said a man whom he thought was Paquette by his voice had "grabbed" him around the neck, thrown him to the ground and kicked him, leaving him unconscious for 10 minutes. Detective J. McMurray confirmed that Auger had been "badly beaten."

Garment Firm Officer Retires

One of the founders of the Great Western Garment Co. Ltd. here, W. A. McAulay, has announced his retirement as vice-president and sales manager of the firm.

Mr. McAulay came to Edmonton from Ontario in 1904 and for a number of years was employed as salesman and buyer.

He was associated with the late C. A. Graham in founding the garment firm.

Mr. and Mrs. McAulay plan to take up residence in Vancouver.

Management of sales department will be taken over by David Jacox, Mr. McAulay's assistant since 1945.

In 1949, the Netherlands exported 10 per cent of the country's total production.

THIS TRUCK and trailer reached Edmonton yesterday with five automobiles from Oshawa, Ont. Trip was designed as a "test run," operators said. Trailer was four days on trip which company operator said showed very little difference in cost between freight and cars shipped by road.

Highway Patrol Crews Helpful To Motorists

More than 85 cars have been serviced on the road by Alberta Motor Association highway patrols since the service was renewed less than two weeks ago.

In the first three nights of operation 18 sealed beam headlights were repaired by the motorcyclists, according to the reports submitted to AMA directors at their noon meeting Tuesday.

HELP ALL

The service is not limited to members as all cars in trouble are aided.

More trouble with fan belts has been encountered this year than at any previous time, with flat tires taking the lead as a minor trouble repaired on the spot.

Directors stressing the need for safety of cars on the road were assured whenever possible the car in trouble is taken to a farm turn-off or a side road for repairs.

Crailing Dick Wins Stake

PONOKA, June 7—Crailing Dick, black labrador owned by Mel McCoy, Ponoka was winner of the open all-age stake at the Ponoka trials Sunday.

Novice stake was won by Golden Pearl, a labrador owned by Lin Phillips.

Leecoys Bob won by the amateur stake and the puppy stake and was handled by owner Mrs. Ella Watson, Ponoka, for the former and by Harold Watson for the latter.

NOBODY GROUCHING NOW

Everybody Is Happier When Summer's in Air

It's obvious even to a blind man that the people of Edmonton have been much more cheerful the past month.

During the winter the people resented the cold, they were glum and morose, they felt miserable and they added to the misery others felt.

With the coming of summer everything changed.

"It was as though some film had been wiped off everyone's face," said Inspector R. Dean, a veteran of 38 years' service with Edmonton Transit System.

"It would seem like a miracle except that I've seen it every year. For weeks on end in the winter time I've seen people resenting the cold and trying to vent their feelings on others. Then suddenly they are happy and cheerful," he said.

"Even jolly people get in ill spirits when it's cold," said Constantin Johnson, 68, who has operated a cafe here since 1911.

"But I haven't seen a cranky person in two weeks. It's always the same every year. It's the same with me. I never quarrel with my wife in the spring."

A blind news vendor said it's obvious to him that people are in better spirits.

"There are cranky people every day in the winter but I haven't met one now for a couple of weeks," the blind man said.

The whole city goes into a psychological slump for three months every winter, according to a transportation official.

"The flow of good humor starts with the first spring day," he said. "I've noticed it here for years and the same applies to Regina. Right now the people of Edmonton seem to be busting at the seams with good humor and fellowship. They were the very opposite two months ago, they always are in severe, cold weather."

A policeman walking his Jasper avenue beat this morning had noticed "some difference, but not very much."

"The people around here never look at us cops as though they think we're human anyway," he said.

Department stores find that "when it's 40 below outside, customers exaggerate their complaints," as one department manager expressed it.

"People with complaints are a lot easier to deal with in the summer than in the winter. They're pretty glum in cold weather."

"In cold weather people have a chip on their shoulder," an attractive office receptionist said. "In winter the house is too hot or too cold when they wake up. It's the same at work, it's too hot or too cold there. People become just as difficult as they can be. But in summer everybody feels much more co-operative. I know I do. That cooped-in feeling is gone and you can look forward to things like summer vacation."

Payment Heads School Group

J. L. Payment, 12210-88 street, was elected president of St. Aloysia Home and School Association at a recent annual meeting held in St. Alphonsus School.

Other officers elected include, Alfred Garneau, first vice-president, Ernest Barker, second vice-president, Mrs. Bert Upright, secretary, and Mrs. Nell Murphy, treasurer.

An address on child supervision during summer holidays was given by Rev. Fr. Albert O'Brien of St. Joseph's Cathedral.

Sister Anna Joseph, school principal, reported on general proficiency prizes awarded during the year.

Time Is Saved As Cars Moved West By Trailer

Delivery of automobiles from Oshawa, Ont., to Edmonton was made yesterday by trailer.

Five new cars were hauled by trailer for Trans-Canada Auto Transport temporarily operating from Sudway Motors 10230-109 street.

The journey took just under four days and was designed as a "trial run."

President of the company, Bory Dlin, said that there is very little difference in cost between the cars travelling by freight or road. Only saving is in the time factor.

Mr. Dlin expects his trailer will make three trips to Oshawa a month.

"One trained operator can unload the trailer in 20 minutes" he said. One man was in charge of the trailer during the trip.

Recipients of the automobiles were Edmonton Motors Limited, 10041-102 street.

Farm Locals Aid Victims Of Flood

Locals of the Farm Women's Union of Alberta are going all out to raise funds for flooded out Manitoba farmers.

To date 10 locals have turned in substantial amounts towards the fund and many others have stated that their drives underway will shortly be completed.

The drive is sponsored by the Farmers' Union of Alberta and is designed primarily to assist hundreds of Manitoba farmers who suffered heavy losses in the path of the Red River.

City's Debt Flying High From Growth

No Time To Prepare Plans To Meet Rapid Expansion

Edmonton, North America's boom city, is going in the hole at the rate of almost $1,000,000 a month.

From a low of $143 in 1946, the city's per capita debt is rising steadily, "and I'm afraid it won't stop under $300," Commissioner John Hodgson told Edmonton Gyro club's luncheon meeting yesterday at the Macdonald hotel.

During 1949 the debt rose from $16,500,000 to $22,000,000; this year it will hit $30,000,000; in 1951 it will climb to $40,000,000 and in 1952 the debt will mount to $52,000,000.

GROWTH

All this is occasioned by the city's tremendous growth, he said. Originally laid out for a population of from 125,000 to 150,000, Edmonton must now be laid out with utilities and services for a population of 300,000.

The five-year plan of public works proposed a year and a half ago by Mr. Hodgson, valued at $40,000,000, now has jumped to a total of $60,000,000.

"If we could expand a bit year by year, and bear the cost as we go, things wouldn't be so bad," he said. "But we have to lay trunk sewers for 75 years in a short space of time, which compounds the financial load."

With the greatest utility system of any city in North America, Edmonton is the only city in Canada with a stationary tax rate, which has remained at 49.5 mills for eight years. Increasing assessments have supplied more taxes to meet the growing financial needs of the administration.

Jasper Students Given Banquet

JASPER, June 7—Eight students were honored at a graduation banquet held at Jasper Friday.

Don Stewart was valedictorian and won the Elks award. Other graduands are, Mary Ellen O'Brien, Lorraine Wachter, Len Crowther, Tom Donnelly, Bud Jones, Jim Key and Fran Seville.

G. Bruce, of the department of education was guest speaker.

Group pictures of former legislature assemblies had a thorough going-over at the legislative building yesterday.

Three former MLAs, Lorne Proudfoot, once UFA representative from Acadia constituency, E. P. Foster, of Three Hills, Social Credit ex-member for Didsbury, and Charles Holder, Vimy, former Social Credit representative for St. Albert, visited their old stamping grounds.

They all lingered longest with clerk of the legislative assembly, Robert Andison, viewing old session photographs in his office.

Band To Return To Elk Island

Popular Gibbons junior orchestra will play a return engagement in Elk Island park bandshell Sunday at 3:30 p.m.

The young musicians, six boys and a girl, were last year's winners of the ACT Search for Talent contest. The orchestra was formed four years ago by Ed Feddema, of Gibbons, as a hobby and is now under direction of D. F. Loblick.

Films will be shown in the evening by the national film board. Officials of the film board, and the park and provincial cultural activities branch are in charge.

Soft Fruit Production Down 98% From '49

By Bea Thrifty

With a long, sad and serious face I shall tell you of the plight of British Columbia fruit-growers.

SOFT FRUIT PRODUCTION WILL MEASURE TO 5 PER CENT OF 1949's PRODUCTION. . . .

Winter's cruel swipe at the Okanagan Valley has wiped out hundreds and hundreds of fruit orchards . . . permanently. Peaches in the southern part of the province suffered most, with apricots and cherries huddled close-by in the sorry situation.

* * *

President of the B.C. Fruit Growers' Association, Ivor Newman, says the picture is black indeed. "Dollars and cents loss of B.C. orchards matches the present Winnipeg flood material loss. If the government wasn't labored with assistance to flood victims we would have to ask for help."

* * *

When questioned, local fruit and vegetable authorities say six or seven years will pass before British Columbia will produce a sizable soft-fruit crop again.

Severe tree damage runs through to the state of Washington where hopes run low for quantity or quality. Fruit growers there feel they'll be lucky if they'll be able to supply local vendors.

* * *

Winter temperatures dropped to an all-time low of 27 degrees below zero in the valley and hung about the 10 degree below zero mark for several weeks. Now that spring has finally made its fresh beginning one can see hundreds of trees standing barren on green-tinted hills.

During the past week, fruit developed to the size of a match-head, stopped growing and dropped.

So cherries, peaches and apricots will barely supply a domestic market. Supplies for preserving, exporting will be practically nil.

* * *

Survivors of the wintry blast are pears, plums, raspberries, strawberries, some tomatoes and asparagus, apples.

Berry blossoms are blooming now with first green fruit barely showing. With warm weather and good luck, crops will produce for local sales by mid-June.

So there's the picture, my dears!

* * *

Local hucksters are shaking their wise little heads . . . and saying oh-h-h-h-h how high the prices will be!

All soft fruit crops, that's peaches, apricots and cherries, will sell in short quantity and at scandalously high prices.

Once again they've pledged me to warn homemakers about the situation. They've struggled to import apricots from California and they'll be arriving late next week.

* * *

Price quotations hover around the $5 per case level for apricots with a shift to higher gear more than just a possibility.

QUANTITIES WILL BE LIMITED . . . that's the crucial point!

Supplies for preserving will be meted out in a first-come-first-served distribution. And if you, Madam Homemaker, aren't right on the tip of your toes . . . you'll be left behind the rush.

Season for the California apricots will be short-lived indeed. And at present there's not a hope in the wide, wide world for apricots from British Columbia.

Sad situation, what?

Nylon Taffeta—Summer Star in Dressmaker Bathing Suits

Lots of women do not like, or think they cannot wear—the close fitting one- or two-piece swim suits. For you there are equally smart dressmaker bathing suits, and some of these almost look like miniature cocktail or evening dresses.

Here again it's nylon that's the news—nylon taffeta this time, which dries even faster than nylon lastex and always looks crisp and fresh on the beach. Smartest suits have fitted princess bodies with flaring skirts and low-cut bra tops.

And by the way, most good bathing suits today have built-in bras, and I myself think they're the only thing to buy.

Manitoba Farmers Receive Donation

June meeting of Edmonton local, Farm Womens' Union of Alberta, was held recently at the home of Mrs. A. Yerex, 11234 86 street.

President Mrs. W. D. Duncan presided over the meeting. There were 13 members and five visitors present.

A donation was made to the Manitoba farmers' flood relief fund.

Delegates were appointed to attend the sub-convention of the FWUA to be held at Gibbons later this month.

Mrs. D. J. Christie gave an interesting talk on co-operation, and a panel discussion was held.

Women Urged to Stand For Public Office By Speaker

Women have a contribution to make to community life which men cannot make stated Miss Margaret Clay, head librarian of the Victoria Public Library, when she addressed members of the Canadian Business and Professional Women's Club recently.

"If we are going to live up to our aims we must take some action to see that more women stand for public office on school boards, city councils and in our legislatures," Miss Clay said.

Continuing Miss Clay stated that there is abroad in the world today a force which can only make for misery and unhappiness and that force is fear.

"We fear what we do not know and an organization such as this has no right to exist unless its members read and study all phases of the issue."

URGED STUDY

Miss Clay felt that we have a fear of the USSR with some justification, just as they fear the western world, but she urged members to read and study everything they could find about Russia.

"No one should form an opinion or enter into judgments on any matter today without first studying both sides of the situation."

Mrs. F. Gostick introduced Miss Clay to members of the Club.

How To Beautify
GRAY HAIR
—color it at home—easily!

Why continue to have gray, faded, streaked hair that makes you look older than your years — when for but a few cents you can mix, right in your own home, a wonderful scientific hair coloring that will put natural-looking color into your hair gradually. Just do this:
Ask your druggist for a package of Orlex. Then mix it and use it right in the privacy of your own home. Simply comb Orlex into the hair as directed—that's all there is to it! Gradually but surely faded, gray, streaked hair has natural-looking color you desire. Orlex won't stain scalp, wash out or affect permanent waves. Cut this notice out and show to your druggist—he knows ORLEX

WHY GROW OLD

Women Watch For This Diet As Another Sign of Spring

By Josephine Lowman

Many women watch for my Nine-Day Reducing Diet like they watch for the first robin of spring.

Each spring I offer it in order to help you take care of those extra pounds which are apt to accumulate during the winter months.

One reader writes: "I have used your Nine-Day Diet several times, always with wonderful results. Every time I gain that first ten pounds I send for it."

A POUND A DAY

Another: "I weighed before I started your Nine-Day Diet and then did not weigh again for five days. At that time I found I had lost five pounds. I lost another three during the remaining four days. I can barely believe it."

Today I am printing second day's menus and will give the diet lists each day for the following days:

(Second Day)—

Breakfast

One-half grapefruit
One thin dry piece of whole wheat toast
Coffee

Luncheon

One poached egg
One thin dry piece of whole wheat toast
One-half cup of broccoli
One glass skimmed milk

Dinner

Two crisp raw carrots
Baked fish (medium portion)
One-half cup green peas
Shredded lettuce salad, lemon dressing
Fresh fruit cup
(Don't eat canned fruit)

If you wish a complete set of menus for the Nine-Day Reducing Diet, with substitutions you may make, send 10 cents and a self-addressed, stamped envelope with your request for my new booklet. Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Bad Habits Caused By Nervous Tension

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

There would seem to be little of either amusement or profit in some of the habits in which children engage. When they make themselves vomit by arching their back or by sticking fingers in their throats, this would seem to be the antithesis of a pleasurable sensation.

Mrs. H. D. F. writes: "I am in need of help. My experience with babies is very limited and raising mine so far has been an education for me. The thing that bothers me is a habit she started about two months ago. She is now a year old and has acquired the habit of gagging herself with her fingers and making herself vomit.

NOT AMUSING

"When she began this I ignored it and asked her doctor. He said she probably did this to amuse herself.

"When ignoring didn't help, I started listening for her and rushing in to distract her, or to rock her to sleep. It always seems to happen at nap or bedtime. She knows I will come running and she uses it as a persuader not to go to bed."

There are some things which might promote a habit of this sort One of them is to constantly urge the child to take more food than she is willing to eat. Habitual over-feeding might lead to this desire to get rid of the food. The vomiting does occur shortly after meals though these happen, no doubt, to be co-incident with nap and bedtimes.

STATE OF TENSION

There is a general state of tension and nervousness in children who engage in such habits. This may be the result of the nervous and apprehensive manner in which you care for her, a result of your own lack of knowledge of how to handle babies.

Just to ease the tension, why not rock her for a short time to put her in the mood for sleep, instead of waiting until she has begun to gag herself? Then, try to enjoy her, play with her, read and sing to her, until she no longer has need for this habit either for amusement or as a release of tensions.

Our leaflet No. 52 "Vomiting," may be had by sending a stamped self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Ideals Often Sacrificed When Want To Be Married

Dear Miss Dix: There is so much written on how to attract and hold a husband and therein lies much difficuty.

If we attract and marry a man or woman with means that are unnatural, that marriage is doomed because we cannot be unnatural all the time. If we are sloppy or spend-thrifts, ill-tempered or drunkards, we should attract some one on our own plane.

On the other hand, too many marry just to be married, without holding to their ideal. If we go down-town to buy a dress or an automobile and let the clerk talk us into buying something different from that which we had in mind, the chances are we will be dissatisfied. The same holds true with husbands and wives.

GERTRUDE.

ANSWER: In our sober moments, before we have taken a draught of the intoxicating elixir of love, all of us have worked out a pattern of the man or woman we would like to have some day for a husband or wife. We know what would suit us in a mate.

We know perfectly well what qualities he or she would have to have to be congenial, what characteristics he or she would have to have to hold our respect and affections.

DON'T FOLLOW THROUGH

A girl thinks that when she chooses a husband he will be a man of character and dignity, the sort of man who is respected by other men. A boy thinks that he would like a wife who would be a good housekeeper, one who would be thrifty and a good manager, who would feed him well and save his money.

And then the girl runs across some handsome good-for-nothing with a way with him and he sweeps her off her feet and she marries him. Or the boy meets some pretty doll who rolls her eyes at him and he falls for her and marries her.

Then when they have got their bargains home and have had time to look them over carefully, they find that they don't suit at all. It is marrying the ones who fire our fancy for the moment instead of the ones who come up to our ideals, that is responsible for most of the failures in marriage.

What you say about the difficulty of keeping up a pretense in marriage is also true. No man or woman, for instance, can keep up the role of lover year after year, if he or she does not really care for the one to whom he or she is married. You can't infuse warmth into duty kisses nor put real feeling into forced caresses.

But there are a lot of things that a man or woman can deliberately do to keep the love fires burning. They can put fuel on the flame by showing each other affection; by considering each other's tastes; by handling each other with diplomacy, by taking as much pains to entertain each other as they would strangers upon whom they wished to make an impression.

Perfect Nonshrink Process For Wools

All-wool blankets can now go in the washing-machine and come out the original size and shape.

A new nonshrink process accomplished with chemicals and techniques learned from experiments with GI socks during the war will make it possible to wash wool blankets with as little trouble as it takes to wash cotton sheets and pillow cases.

Horoscope

By FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1950

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—Somewhat uninteresting for money and business, unless you have the inside track. Launch your own initiative—sensibly, of course. Your chances will be good for some useful achievement.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus)—Vibrations now put it straight up to you; you are one who, if you will, can make something out of little. Emphasis on original, new ideas, things that have general appeal.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini)—Somewhat dull in a.m.? Get a little more personal energy behind your work. Keep things going. Action is your natural asset and you can no doubt come in with new laurels.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer)—"Pack up your troubles" and get an early start to counteract obstacles that may obstruct your path. Lead and make many of your breaks, but don't force beyond reason.

July 24 to August 22 (Leo)—Take no stock in complainers, flighty people; they confuse logical thinking, potent possibilities. Let your natural humor and sense of values keep you out of any rut today.

August 23 to September 23 (Virgo)—You may be called upon to investigate before going ahead or agreeing to propositions offered. Press important issues as far as is reasonable. Don't fear losing, and you won't.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—Be patient. You are in transition to better aspects, so mark time where you should. Don't dally with routine. Relax a few minutes during rush hours. It freshens vigor.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—Some uncertainty suggests added care in finances or matters pertaining to home, family affairs. Determine your action to be within safe ground all the time; don't get risky now.

November 23 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—A day in which you will have to mind each move, word, thought. Don't dominate things in the home; the reaction will hurt you more in long run, gain nothing.

December 23 to January 21 (Capricorn)—Mixed influences arg[illegible] for conservative schedule, especially in business, work, professional matters. Some increase in personal advantages from 6 p.m. on. Romance favored.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius)—Hold tight; be on guard for unexpected hidrances that you can overcome if awake and thinking. Don't indulge in one-way ideas; broaden observation and develop new thoughts.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)—Most matters will require smart thinking and maneuvering. Seek advice from superiors, if in doubt, also loved ones. P.M. rays fine for family, home, social affairs.

You Born Today have the Sun in Gemini, the Twins. Your planet Mercury rules the intellectual side. Properly educated and following sound principles you are capable of accomplishing almost anything. Sensitive, many-sided, tend to moods. You seek knowledge, are versatile, talented. Often go beyond ordinary ideas; like deals that others might shun for fear of failure. Gemini doesn't mind failures, will try again and achieve. Be honest with all, relax regularly and hold to good principles. Birthdate: Robert Schumann, music composer; Charles Reade, novelist, dramatist.

Quota Club Donates To Flood Relief

White elephant auction sale held by the Quota Club of Edmonton was very successful, it was announced at a recent meeting of the club.

Donations from the Edmonton Quota Club were made to the Winnipeg Flood Fund and to the Quota Club of Winnipeg to enable them to continue their work of making large number of sandwiches for the flood workers.

Official Call to the Quota Club International Inc. Convention being held at the Grand Hotel, Mackinac Island, was read by the president, Mrs. Inez Weeks. Miss Muriel Hillas and Miss Edith DeVries were chosen as delegates and will be leaving shortly for the convention.

Theme of the convention this year will be "Working to Strengthen Democracy."

Since its founding in 1919, the organization has grown to a membership of over 7,000 women in Quota Clubs in four nations, Canada, United States, Mexico and Australia. All members of the Quota Club are women executives in business, the arts or professions.

When meal-making time is crowded with so many other things to do—when food-budgets are stretched to the limit—when guests drop in unexpectedly and you have to whip up a snack—in fact, many times during a busy week you will thank your stars and the Heinz chefs for providing you with seven main course dishes that can be waiting on your pantry shelves, ready for emergencies. All four kinds of Heinz Oven-Baked Beans are now back on the market—old time favourites all of them. To this delicious foursome Heinz has just added a new variety, Cooked Spaghetti with Meat, which makes a pleasing and satisfying variation from the long-established Heinz Spaghetti in Tomato Sauce with Cheese. Finally, to complete a group of 7 main course meals, there is Heinz Cooked Macaroni in Cream Sauce with Cheese, now made to a new, improved recipe.

The way Heinz bakes Beans is the way you like them best—tender with oven-baked goodness and steeped in Heinz own unequalled Tomato Sauce.

He-man appetites, which often hanker for strong flavours, find just what they're looking for in Heinz Oven-Baked Red Kidney Beans with Pork.

The latest of the four Heinz favourites to return to the market is the Boston Style tin, the beans drenched in Molasses Sauce, with Pork.

Here is one of the long-time best-sellers in the famous 57 family. Heinz chefs make their own delicious spaghetti, adding cheese and tomato sauce.

The newest variety to come from Heinz kitchens is this Cooked Spaghetti with Meat, containing beef, cheese, tomato sauce and fragrant spices.

Hiking Is Popular In Summer Holidays

Now that summer is really here and the holidays are not far off, many boys and girls are thinking about the different things they can do to make the holidays more enjoyable. So let's talk about a few of popular summer activities.

Hiking, I think, is one of the favorites of young and old. Here in northern Alberta, there is no better way to spend an enjoyable afternoon. For those who live in Edmonton, there are the common parks like Borden, South Side and Victoria, where a pleasant afternoon can be spent on the well-worn paths and picnic grounds.

INDIAN TRAIL

For those a little more adventurous, Rat Creek Ravine, in the east part of Edmonton, offers an ideal spot to spend the day. There is an old Indian trail which leads into the very depths of the cool valley and wild strawberries, raspberries and gooseberries can be found in many shady nooks.

Of course, boys and girls who live in the many towns and villages of the province can wander among the fields or take a picnic lunch to the "old swimming hole." And those who are lucky enough to live on farms can usually find a nice cool spot right in their own back yard.

CYCLE HIKES

Any boys and girls who own bicycles can get together and hold bicycle hikes. The Edmonton Safety Council knows that youngsters enjoy this kind of sport, so they've been co-operating with the Recreation Commission to form a group known as the Edmonton Bicycle Club. They've got a good idea. The club holds an outing every Sunday and goes on little jaunts out of town.

Yesterday, I hear they went to Blackmud Creek and now they're talking about a second trip to St. Albert. By the way, St. Albert now has a bicycle club of its own.

The clubs are restricted to boys and girls who are over 13 years old and is just the thing for the summer holidays. Besides the excursions into the country, they learn all about the proper safety rules they should watch when riding their bikes.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

A few other activities that should be interesting during the summer holidays are swimming, sports drawing pictures out-of-doors, and dozens of others. Every boy and girl has his own particular favorite. Some girls prefer sports, while others like reading. Boys are a little more constant. Most of them like sports, hiking and things like that.

But whether you live in High Prairie or Grande Prairie, Sylvan Lake or Saddle Lake, there'll be a dozen and one things to do when that old school bell rings for the last time this term.

Sincerely,

Joan Walker

Uncle Wiggily's Bedtime Story

Naturally everyone wanted to know why the chipmunk was running toward the centre circus ring shouting "Wait, wait!" just as the piggy was about to get on Jumppy's back. Hippo the manager exclaimed:

"What's the matter, Chippy? What do you want us to wait for?"

"Because Chitter-Chatter is back!" the chipmunk answered excitedly. "Look—here he comes!"

And surely enough, in walked Chitter-Chatter, the monkey who used to do flip-flops on Jumppy's back, before running away from the circus. Chitter-Chatter looked very proud, and in a moment everyone saw why: with him was a monkey girl, the cutest little monkey you ever saw, with a big pink bow tied around her waist, and the nicest little sunbonnet on her head.

"But Chitter-Chatter, whom have you brought with you?" Hippo asked, looking at the cute girl monkey.

"This," said Chitter-Chatter proudly, "is my dear wife, Mrs. Chitter-Chatter!"

"My goodness," said Ha-ha, the cat with the laughing eyes, "I thought you were trying to find a buttermilk buttercup!"

"That's my wife's name—Buttercup!" laughed Chitter-Chatter. "And she loves buttermilk, so you see you weren't far wrong, Ha-ha!"

"Welcome to the circus, Buttercup," Hippo boomed out in his deepest voice. "We are all very glad to have you with us."

"Thank you," said Mrs. Buttercup Chitter-Chatter in a nice little voice. "I'm happy to be here. I've always loved circuses!"

"And now you can see why I called 'Wait,'" Chippy the Chipmunk said. "Chitter-Chatter has returned, so there is no need for Piggy to try to ride Jumppy, although I think is was very brave of him to want to try."

This time the applause was so loud that it made the sides of the tent puff in and out like Hippo's sides when he sighed—which may be a little hard to say, so I'll wait a moment for you to practice it, if you like. And now we'll go on.

Hippo expected Chitter-Chatter to leap right up on Jumppy's back, and so did Jumppy, because he was looking very pleased, and pawing the tanbark of the ring with his forefeet. But, to everyone's surprise, Chitter-Chatter just stood there and looked rather funny.

"What's the matter, Chitter-Chatter?" Hippo asked anxiously. "Aren't you going to ride Jumppy?" Uncle Wiggily and the others watching were wondering, too, why the monkey didn't begin to do his circus tricks.

"Well, you see it's this way," Chitter-Chatter said. "I like to ride on Jumppy's back and do flip-flops. In fact I love to do it. But Buttercup is rather afraid I might fall. Of course, I never have fallen," and he smiled at Jumppy. "And even if I did, it wouldn't hurt me. But Buttercup thinks I might stub my toe, or something. So she doesn't want me to ride."

But that's another story! And I'll tell you about it tomorrow if the lamppost doesn't wink so hard at the June bug that it blows [illegible] out.

Please enroll me in the Tawasi Club.

Alderman Warns Edmonton To Expect Accident Increase

The city of Edmonton can expect a marked increase in traffic accidents in 1950.

That was the warning issued last night by Alderman W. Hawrelak, speaking on behalf of the Edmonton Safety Council to a large audience attending a first anniversary for the Starlite Drive-In Theatre.

The alderman said main reason for the expected increase over last year's 2,625 reported accidents in which 49 persons were killed, was due in part to the sharp rise in the number of motor cars in Edmonton.

He said the number of cars increased 42 per cent over the past three years accompanying a rise in population which showed a nine per cent gain last year alone.

The population increase was nine times greater than the average for North American cities, he stated.

CANADIAN TOTAL

Nine thousand people had been killed in car accidents in Canada in the period 1940-45, the alderman said, 92 per cent caused by the human factor.

Apart from loss of life and suffering, the property damage, he said, would amount to $1,125,000 for Edmonton's 1949 traffic accidents.

The speaker sounded the oft-repeated warning about the danger of driving while under influence of intoxicants.

"The probability of an accident occurring is increased 56 per cent," he said.

EDUCATION HELPS

Education of drivers and pedestrians was the only way a grim increase in accident toll this year could be avoided, he said.

The accident rate decreased one third here during safety campaigns, he pointed out, quoting Edmonton Safety Council as authority for the figure.

Calgary's First Welshman Dies

CALGARY, June 6 (CP)—Calgary construction pioneer and first Welshman to settle in the city, Robert Cadogan Thomas died today. He was 88.

Until recently he managed the Wales hotel, which he built in 1931. A former city alderman, Mr. Thomas was active in many phases of business. He came to Canada in 1885, settled in south-western Alberta and two years later moved to Calgary.

Tombstone Tourney Opens Golfing Year

SEDGEWICK, June 7—About 30 members of Sedgewick Golf Club attended the official opening of the season last week to compete in the Tombstone Tourney.

Bill Cooper and Art Eastly were first and second winners, while E. Leah and Digger O'Dell won shortest distance and longest drive awards. Hidden hole prizes were won by Brian Corkery, Russell Smith, George Anderson, H. R. Lackey, John Hopkin, and Austin Smith.

The club's annual open tourney will be held June 25.

Sedgewick Woman Dies in Edmonton

SEDGEWICK, June 7 — Mrs. Emma Armanda Humes, who had resided here for more than 30 years died recently in Edmonton.

Born in Illinois in 1865, she married George Frederick Humes in 1887 and moved to Sedgewick in 1912, where she resided until the death of her husband in 1944. Since then she has lived in Edmonton.

She is survived by one son Omar, at Lacombe, and a daughter, Mrs. Maybelle Fitzgerald, of Truro, Iowa.

Funeral services were held in the Sedgewick United Church, with Rev. W. Brooks, Anglican rector officiating. Interment was made in the Sedgewick cemetery.

Russian Navy Moves Rapped

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, June 7—(UP)—Yugoslavia demanded today in a stiff note that Russia call off its naval manoeuvres in the Danube River on grounds that they were interfering with river traffic.

The note said the manoeuvres in the Romanian section of the Danube were blocking free passage to the Black Sea and piling up traffic. It also said that several passing vessels had sailed into the line of fire of Soviet guns.

Crop Range In Province Fair To Good

Crop conditions in all but one area of Alberta range from fair to good, according to the bi-weekly report issued today by the Alberta department of agriculture.

Crops are rated poor to fair only in the Smoky Lake-St. Paul area. Conditions are more favorable in all other areas, although south-eastern Alberta remains dry and early rains are required.

Soil moisture conditions in the Peace River area are good. Recent rains in other districts have considerably improved crop prospects, particularly in central and Northern Alberta.

Wheat seeding is now completed throughout the province. Most coarse grains will be in the ground within another week.

Height of wheat is from one to six inches. Coarse grains planted early are now about four inches above ground.

Mayor's Secretary Dies In Edmonton

Mrs. Meta Totty Dead Following Brief Illness

Mrs. Meta Totty, secretary to Edmonton's mayor since November, 1948, died suddenly Tuesday after a short illness.

Funeral will be held 1:30 p.m. Friday from Foster and McGarvey chapel, with burial in Edmonton cemetery.

"I'm exceedingly sorry to lose Mrs. Totty," said Mayor Sid Parsons today. "She has been an extremely efficient secretary."

Born in Scotland, Mrs. Totty (nee Fowler) came to Edmonton as a girl and finished her schooling here.

She worked with the provincial forestry department, and then went to the United Kingdom in 1937.

There she was stranded by the outbreak of war, and served in the operations and intelligence branches of the Imperial War Department.

BACK IN 1948

Two years ago she flew back to Canada, and went to work with Edmonton city police department, later becoming Mayor Harry D. Ainlay's secretary.

Mrs. Totty was formerly a leader in the Girl Guide Association and recently has been active in IODE work.

She is survived by her husband Ernest, in Yorkshire, England, and by a sister, Mrs. H. V. Weekes, 9645-88 avenue.

Man Injured, Driver Fined

Driver of a car whose passenger allegedly caused him to swerve into a light pole was fined $40 today for dangerous driving.

In the accident which occurred in front of 9917-109 street at 3:45 a.m., today, passenger Harry Stapleton, 10725-73 avenue, suffered cuts and loss of blood when his head went through the windshield.

Alex Dubensky, counsel for Barnsdale, told the Court that Stapleton had admitted to him that he grabbed Barnsdale's arm and thereby caused the accident.

The car's right front fender and wheel and the front bumper and windshield were damaged.

Stapleton was rushed to the Royal Alexandra hospital by city ambulance. He suffered from shock and extensive loss of blood, and cuts about his head and face.

MacArthur Moves To Ban Red Editors

By EARNEST HOBERECHT

Special to The Bulletin

TOKYO, June 7 — (UP) — Gen. Douglas MacArthur today banned from all party activities 17 editors of the Communist party newspaper Akahata. The move was in retaliation for their defiant nationwide general strike call protesting MacArthur's purge of 24 top Communist party leaders.

At the same time there was speculation that MacArthur may order Russian delegates to the Allied Control Council here to leave Japan if they continue to boycott council meetings. They failed to show up again today.

ON SAME BASIS

The editors were ordered banned from all party agitation and public activities on the same grounds as the 24 Communist leaders: the occupation law banning a revival of Japanese militarism.

MacArthur said he could either order the paper closed or order it censored before publication, but did not wish to do so.

"Both courses are repugnant to me as violative of the broad philosophy which has guided the development of press freedom in Japan and should be imposed only if other measures prove ineffective," MacArthur said.

Anti-Coca Cola Bill Defeated

PARIS, June 7 — (AP) — Parliament's upper house last night defeated legislation aimed at banning Coca Cola, criticized by conservative wine growers and anti-American Communists as a threat to French drinking habits.

Parliamentary observers agreed the action virtually killed the bill. The bill was approved by the National Assembly, the lower house, last February.

Festival Workers Back At Work

LONDON, June 7—(Reuters)—Nearly 400 men whose unofficial strike has been holding up work on London's "Festival of Britain" site decided today to return to work.

The men, employed by a contracting firm, stopped work a week ago because another firm employed two non-unionists.

Bermuda, the oldest self-governing British colony, is composed of about 150 small islands.

HUBBY LOSES FAMILY

Mama Hard to Please, She'll Sleep Outdoors

TORONTO, June 7—(CP) — With her three small children, mama Pitzryk had kept a seven-day vigil beside a small heap of furniture in a lane of mid-town Baldwin street while her husband looked for a new home.

Evicted from their house with its six tiny rooms, papa and mama Pitzryk had begun the search for new quarters when they fell eight months behind with their rent. But mama didn't like any of the accommodations papa showed her. With Jennie, 10, Dorothy, 8, and Teddy 5, she camped by the furniture and refused to budge.

She fed the children oranges, pop and soup and spent the nights on the tiny veranda of their former home.

Yesterday papa told mama he had found two rooms on nearby Grange avenue. Mama refused to allow him to make a down-payment.

Papa called two policemen to restrain mama and had the furniture loaded onto a truck. He stored the furniture in a garage, then went back for mama. But she and the children had disappeared.

Installed in the Grange avenue rooms, papa is still looking for his family.

"Mama don't like nobody," he explains.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
Without Calomel — And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out about 2 pints of bile juice into your digestive tract every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest. It may just decay in the digestive tract. Then gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

It takes those mild, gentle Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these 2 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package today. Effective in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. 35¢ at any drugstore.

War-Cripples Threat In West Germany

By Jack Henry

FRANKFURT, June 7.—(Reuters)—A campaign which threatens fresh trouble for the West German government is developing behind the legless and sightless war veterans who squat and beg in the ruined cities of West Germany.

These men are only the tiny advance guard of the 1,400,000 disabled German veterans of the Second World War whose demands for better pensions and treatment are becoming more and more vociferous.

These disabled number less than half the estimated 3,400,000 German victims of Hitler's war who receive financial aid from the West German authorities.

The main organization for the disabled is the Verband Der Kriegs-Beschaedigten. One of its leaders is Helmut Bazille, Social Democrat and son of a former state president of Wuerttemberg. A smaller organization is the Reichsbund Der Kriegsbeschaedigten, with about 300,000 members. Both claim to be non-partisan.

AN END TO TALK

Bazille has since announced that unless the government provides a better aid bill by June 20, the Verband "will no longer envisage the chance of reaching its aims by negotiation and will tell its members to give expression to their just claims by all legal means."

Anton Storch, West German labor minister, promised a law coordinating legislation in the 11 states of the federal republic by April 1, but the law has not yet materialized.

Pension rates vary among the states. But they are approximately 50 marks (about $12) a month for a 50-per-cent disability (leg off above the knee); 100 marks for 100-per-cent disability (legless, handless or sightless). The average wage of an industrial worker is about 240 marks a month.

Including crippled survivors of the First World War, the disabled persons in Germany today number 1,600,000.

PROVINCE OF ALBERTA

Tender Notice

Sealed tenders will be received until 11 o'clock Edmonton time on the morning of June 16th for the construction of a canal having a bed width of 30 feet and depth of about 11 feet, located south and east of Taber, Alberta. The work will be let in two contracts. The following are the approximate quantities of work in each.

2. Overhaul—300,000 sta. yds.
3. Canal lining—30,000 cu. yds.
4. Treated timber—93 M.F.B.M.
5. Untreated timber—66 M.F.B.M.
6. Round piling—4,400 lin. ft.
7. Corrugated iron culverts—240 lin. ft.
8. Concrete—50 cu. yds.

DIVISION 9 CONTRACT 4

1. Common excavation—550,000 cu. yds.
2. Overhaul—150,000 sta. yds.
3. Canal lining—26,000 cu. yds.
4. Treated timber—85 M.F.B.M.
5. Untreated timber—60 M.F.B.M.
6. Round piling—4,000 lin. ft.
7. Corrugated iron culverts—570 lin. ft.
8. Concrete—50 cu. yds.

Tender forms, plans and specifications may be obtained from the office of the undersigned at the Terrace Building, Edmonton, upon the deposit of ten dollars for each set. Bidders should state definitely which are required. This deposit will be repaid upon return of the plans and specifications in good order within one month after the tenders have closed.

Any tenders which are not prepared strictly in accordance with "Instructions to Bidders" may be rejected.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

B. RUSSELL,
Director of Water Resources,
Province of Alberta,
Terrace Building,
Edmonton, Alberta.

Grasshoppers Block Filming

IDYLLWILD, Calif., June 7—(AP)—Filming called off on account of grasshoppers.

That was Universal International studio's plight yesterday after a horde of the pesky insects took over a Western location spot here. County officials were unable to send out a plane to spray the area because no crops were involved.

There was no confirmation that the movie might be titled "Hopalong Grassidy."

International Video Not Far Away

NEW YORK, June 7.—(AP)—Brig.-Gen. David Sarnoff said yesterday "international television is not far off."

"The scientific principles for linking the hemispheres by television already are known," said the chairman of the board of Radio Corporation of America.

Fall From Train Inside Tunnel Causes Suit

CALGARY, June 7 — (CP) — A lawsuit for $48,250 damages from the Canadian Pacific Railway was started in Supreme Court today by Wilton Dixon of Macleod, Alta.

Dixon fell from the vestibule between two railway cars, February 22, 1949, while on his way back from Vancouver. His fall, causing a broken hip and head and face cuts, occurred as the train was passing through the second of the spiral tunnels in the Canadian Rockies.

He told Mr. Justice W. G. Egbert and a jury of six that he had left his seat to go to the car ahead for some candy for his wife and as he got to the vestibule he was blinded by smoke.

Church People Falling Down As Teachers

MONTREAL, June 7.—(CP)—The life, faith and worship of church members every day of the week and in every area of life must be in active evidence if the Christian cause is to be a force in this world, the Presbyterian Congress was told yesterday by Rev. James S. Clarke, secretary of the board of Sabbath schools and Young People's Societies.

The failure of church members to take seriously the task of training and teaching the young was blamed by Mr. Clarke as the reason for the weakness of the church today. He stated membership of the Presbyterian Church in Canada is 5,000 less than it was 18 years ago, and that Sunday School enrolment had decreased by many thousands.

Carstairs Girl Named Calgary Stampede Queen

CALGARY, June 7.—(CP)—Miss Eileen Beckner of Carstairs, Alta., last night was named queen of the 1950 Calgary Exhibition and Stampede. The excellent young horsewoman was sponsored by the junior branch of the Farmers' Union of Alberta.

In second place was Ann Duchak, sponsored by the association of United Ukrainian Canadians. Gussie MacDonald, sponsored by the Sunalta Community Association, placed third. The two Calgary girls will act as ladies-in-waiting to Queen Eileen.

The annual contest is sponsored by the Alberta Commercial Travelers' Association.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—(AP)—President Truman yesterday reappointed Gen. George C. Marshall for a new three-year term as president of the American Red Cross.

Wavell Funeral First On River Since Year 1806

LONDON, June 7.—(Reuters)—Field Marshal Earl Wavell, who led the Allied forces to their first land victory of the Second World War in North Africa, was given a hero's funeral here today.

In the first river funeral since 1806, when Lord Nelson's body was brought from Greenwich Palace to St. Paul's Cathedral, the field marshal's body was borne slowly up the Thames by launch from the Tower of London to Westminster Abbey.

The body had lain in state in the Norman Chapel of the Tower—of which Lord Wavell was formerly constable—since his death May 24.

New York Boosts Bus, Tram Fares

NEW YORK, June 7.—(CP)—Fares on city-owned buses and trolleys, which carry nearly 2,000,000 passengers a day in New York, will be raised from seven to 10 cents July 1, Mayor William O'Dwyer announced last night. The present bus-subway transfer fare will be raised from 12 to 15 cents. The new fares are expected to pay for wage increases for all operating employees of the city transit system. Subway fares remain at 10 cents.

Ex-Slave Dies

Middletown, N.Y., June 7—(AP)—Daniel W. Bailey, a former slave from Macon, Ga., died Monday aged 103.

OFF TO PROD THE SOD?

A sunny Spring day brings out the "back to nature" urge in everyone. The only discouraging part to gardening is you have to wait several months to see the results.

When you use an inexpensive want ad to sell your "don't wants," the cash results are immediate. The same is true when you insert a "wanted to buy" classified ad. The results are surprisingly quick.

It's so easy to place an Edmonton Bulletin want ad; just call 42111 and say "charge it."

WINDS FORCE RE-SEEDING

BONNYVILLE, June 7—Winds ranging from 50 to 60 miles an hour have uprooted some seeding fields in the Bonnyville area.

Some re-seeding will be necessary, farmers report.

New land has been broken in the area during the past few years and trees which served as a windbreak were destroyed.

United Church Holds Rally

WETASKIWIN, June 7—Red Deer Presbytery of the United Church will hold a rally Sunday in the experimental farm pavilion at Lacombe.

The United Churches from Wetaskiwin to Carstairs will attend in a body. There will be music by a massed choir from all points. A special organ is being brought from Edmonton and a special Carillonic bell system is being installed for the day.

Guest speaker will be the Very Rev. T. W. Jones of Montreal, former moderator of the United Church of Canada.

The rally commences at 3 p.m. Members of First United Church, Wetaskiwin, will gather at the church at 1:30 p.m. where arrangements have been made for cars for all who wish to go.

Athabasca Elks Club Sponsors Sports Day

ATHABASCA, June 7—Athabasca's sports day, July 1 will this year be handled by the recently organized BPOE.

There will be a parade in the morning, in which prize awards are to be given for best decorative float, school banner, national costume, decorated bicycle. In the afternoon, in addition to the annual baseball tournament, new features will include a slow car race, fiddlin' contest, rolling pin throw, and midway attractions.

Dawson Creek Trucker Does 'Impossible' Job

By Don Osborne
Exclusive to The Bulletin

DAWSON CREEK, B.C.—An efficient business sense and a faith in men and machines is paying off for 35-year-old Roger Forsyth of Dawson Creek.

After years of struggle and hardship, his "impossible" truck freighting service from Edmonton to this Peace River centre of British Columbia is beginning to make money.

Modest about the success of a trucking line which was, three years ago, termed an impossible venture, Roger Forsyth is looking forward to expanding and improving the service which now runs four semi-trailer freight rigs between the Alberta capital and this distribution centre.

When Mr. Forsyth, along with Gordon Wilson, formed Northern Freightways Limited back in 1945, he had nothing but four trucks and years of experience behind the wheel. Together the two men maintained their venture by hauling lumber. In 1947 they took over the defunct Parent Transport Company which operated a charter trucking service between Edmonton and the Peace River and announced that they would begin a schedulé service.

This announcement was met by cries of 'impossible' by bankers and truckers who knew the conditions under which they would have to operate.

However Forsyth and Tim Aseltine, a partner of the bankrupt Parent Transport made the service pay. With a fleet of 12 trucks they went to work. For the first year they brushed wings with disaster all too often. Rains turned the gravelled roads into seas of mud and left trucks in the ditches. Traffic tie-ups at the ferries caused perishable loads to spoil. Revenue was curtailed because of the lack of back-haul freight from Dawson to Edmonton.

Finally Gordon Wilson and Walter Parent, who had become a shareholder in the company when it absorbed Parent Transport, withdrew from the venture. Roger Forsyth, who managed the operation from here, and Tim Aseltine, in charge of the Edmonton depot, remained confident that someday the conditions would improve.

Today that confidence is finding its reward. Bridges have been built to replace the inadequate ferries and the road is being improved.

RAIN HALTS BRETON FIRE

BRETON, June 7—Loss by fire of a building owned by Harry Ahsers of Breton, is estimated at $800.

The structure burned about midnight Sunday.

Adjoining buildings were not damaged. Rain which dampened them aided firemen in their fight.

Bishop Preaches Farewell Sermon

HIGH PRAIRIE, June 7—Bishop A. H. Sovereign will preach his farewell sermon at St. Marks Church, High Prairie and McLennan Aug. 13.

The Bishop's work during pioneer days, his help to early settlers and his interest in schools and roads in this area, have done much to bring educational facilities and improved highways to the district.

The Anglican church here and at many other points in the Peace River area, owe their existance to the Bishop's efforts in the depression days.

HARDISTY FARMER HAS NARROW ESCAPE

HARDISTY, June 7—Lee Reber, a farmer in Hardisty district, had a narrow escape from death Friday when he was pinned beneath his overturned tractor.

He was working on a steep hillside on the farm of Alex Reeves, when the tractor overturned, pinning him beneath the steering gear. Only the quick thinking of Alex Reeves and Mr. Reber's son, Jimmy, saved him from being crushed to death.

The pair raised one side of the tractor enough to release the victim, who was then rushed to Hardisty for examination. Doctor's examination revealed no serious injury.

June Frost By-Passes Edmonton

City Not Touched But Other Alberta Areas Get Some

June frost by-passed Edmonton last night but touched most other areas of central and northern Alberta.

Edmonton gardens last night took on a quaint and weird appearance as home owners, warned frost was likely, covered plants with everything from newspapers to paper bags.

Crop and garden damage is expected to be light as the lowest temperature, recorded at Red Deer, was only three degrees below the freezing point.

CLOUD BANK HELPS

A cloud bank concentrated over the city and, coupled with occasional gusts of wind, kept Edmonton's temperatures above the frost level forecast for last night. The mercury dipped to 37.5 degrees at the airport weather station.

In low-lying areas of the city, temperatures dropped a little more. Traces of white frost were visible this morning on some lawns and gardens in scattered sections of the city.

Gardeners will rest easier tonight, as sunny and warm weather returned to the city today. High today will be 60 degrees, and the mercury will go no lower than 40 above zero.

Light frosts were recorded in almost all central and northern sections of Alberta except Edmonton.

29 AT RED DEER

Red Deer was coldest with a 29-degree low; at Whitecourt, northeast of the city, temperatures hovered at the freezing point.

Rocky Mountain House and Coronation both recorded lows of 31 degrees, and Vermilion weather station reported an overnight low of 30 degrees.

At Cowley, in the mountain area of southern Alberta, a few snowflakes were reported. Overnight low there was 32 degrees.

Heavier frost is believed to have occurred in low-lying sections of all these areas, but crop and garden damage is thought to have occurred only in isolated cases.

Didsbury Couple Married 50 Years

DIDSBURY, June 7—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Olsen celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last week at their home near Bergen.

Married in Wisconsin in 1900 they were among the first Bergen settlers. Their four children with their wives and families were all present.

MARKSMAN MEETS RECORD

CONSORT, June 7—During a trap shoot between Consort and Veteran Gun Clubs Preston Kelts recorded 25 straight hits for the Consort Club.

Although many have come close with 24 out of 25 this youthful newcomer was the first to get the full count since the club originated a year ago. He will also be first to obtain a crest from Dominion Marksmen, Montreal.

In spite of it the Veteran club won the challenge trophy.

Heavy-Tipping Stowaway Ship's Most Popular Man

QUEBEC, June 7—(CP)—Immigration officials here today took into custody a youthful stowaway from the liner Empress of Scotland, who had made so many friends aboard the vessel—carrying Commonwealth delegates at the seventh Imperial Press conference—that a group of passengers collected enough money to pay his fare.

Immigration officials declined to say what they would do with the young man, who claims to be a Canadian of Polish extraction.

The vessel's authorities declined to take money for the youth's fare and it was returned to the donors.

The stowaway was detected on the last day of the voyage by an alert steward, who saw him slip out of a vacant stateroom which he occupied secretly during the voyage.

He succeeded in getting on the vessel at Liverpool by carrying two handsome suitcases—the property of other passengers.

He mixed in with other passengers of his own age and became popular by winning large amounts of money at ship horse-racing and bingo games. He bought rounds of drinks and tipped waiters lavishly.

The story that he was a stowaway began to circulate quietly among his new friends before the vessel authorities were put on the alert by his odd behavior. His friends began collecting money to pay his fare.

Jeweler Faces Trial For Murder

QUEBEC CITY, June 7—(BUP)—Clockmaker Genereux Ruest, 51 was charged with murder today in the Sept. 9 time-bombing of a transport plane which killed 23 persons, including Mrs. Rita Guay.

The newest development in the bizarre story of the J. Albert Guay case came after Guay himself was reported to have implicated Ruest in the murders.

Almost simultaneously with the murder charge against Ruest Solicitor-General Antoine Rivard said Guay's execution date of June 23 had been set back to January 12, 1951. Guay was sentenced to death specifically for killing his wife in the time-bombing of the plane.

Preliminary hearing of Ruest's case was set for next Wednesday.

Officers who arrested Ruest last night said he admitted making the time-bomb mechanism, which was used to blow up the Canadian Pacific Airlines' plane above Sault au Cochon, Que.

Queen Candidate Entertains Town

HARDISTY, June 7—Doreen Powell, candidate for stampede queen, entertained crowds on the Hardisty streets Saturday night, with her guitar and cowboy songs.

Preparations are being made for the big stampede June 16 and 17. Ten-gallon hats and cowboy togs are now the fashion around the rodeo town.

Avondale Youth Takes Show Honors

DRUMHELLER, June 7—Don J. Buyer, of the Avondale Junior Beef Club, Friday won a close decision over Lyle Robbs, of Hanna, for the championship in the fifth annual Drumheller and District Calf Show and Sale.

Both the grand and reserve champions were Herefords. Quality of the animals in the show, according to N. F. Bell, district agriculturist, was slightly better than one year ago.

Britain in Autumn

SPEND your vacation in Britain in the late Summer or Fall when steamship accommodation is more readily available.

IN EUROPE, Autumn means uncrowded hotels and trains . . . more leisurely sightseeing and shopping . . . generally at lower prices than during the Summer. And remember that devaluation of European currencies lowers the cost for Canadian visitors.

FALL weather is perfect for travel in Europe and the countryside is at its colourful best.

Two Billions To Aid Prices

WASHINGTON, June 7 — (AP) — The Senate passed a bill today authorizing an additional $2,000,000,000 for government support of United States farm prices.

The measure, similar to one approved by the House of Representatives, increases by that amount the price supporting capacity of the Commodity Credit Corporation, which maintains the support program.

If finally approved by Congress and President Truman, it would authorize the CCC to use up to $6,750,000,000 in bolstering price props on basic crops. It now goes back to the House for action on a Senate amendment relating to imports of foreign farm products.

The final Senate vote—46 to 5—came early this morning after a long night session.

The amendment would, in effect, allow the President to invoke import quotas or fees on foreign farm products if the secretary of agriculture considered that such imports were reducing the effectiveness of any farm price support program.

London Exchange Starts New Account With Vim

LONDON—(Reuters)—The new account in the London Stock Exchange made a bright start today.

Industrial share prices were marked higher at the outset to meet an anticipated wave of buying, and gains were widespread in breweries, tobaccos, textiles and the miscellaneous leaders.

The volume of buying, however, proved to be smaller than expected and final levels were occasionally below best.

OTTAWA — (CP) — The post-stamp business netted the government about $61,000,000 in the fiscal year ended March 31, the Commons was told today.

Postage sales grossed $93,500,000, while $32,000,000 was spent for all contracts for the carriage of mail by land, sea and air.

Amendment Plugs Hole In Farm Assistance Act

OTTAWA, June 7.—(CP)—Commons today gave third and final reading to amendments to the Prairie Farm Assistance Act, which gives financial aid to western farmers who suffer crop losses.

The measure excludes from the provisions of the act all lands farmed under lease from municipal or provincial governments since Dec. 31, 1940.

This is to prevent anyone from taking up abandoned sub-marginal land with a consistent record of crop failure and reaping a benefit under the Act.

Hazen Argue (CCF-Assiniboia) contended the amendment was discriminative because of the retroactive provision.

P. E. Wright (CCF-Melfort) suggested the best way to deal with sub-marginal land was to spend more money under the Prairie Farm Rehabilitation Act, under which poor lands are brought back into production.

Rene Jutras (L-Provencher) asked that benefits paid to farmers in flooded Southern Manitoba not be deducted from any federal financial aid which they might receive.

AMENDMENTS

Pressing towards prorogation, the chamber earlier also gave third and final reading to a technical bill dealing with units of electrical measurement, to another amending the Militia Pensions Act and to amendments made by the Senate to a measure altering the Income Tax Act.

Legislation authorizing the establishment of an official residence for Canadian prime ministers was advanced another step after Works Minister Fournier said it may cost roughly between $150,000 and $200,000 to renovate the old building purchased some months ago by the government.

Wheat Contracts To Be Fulfilled

MONTREAL, June 7—(BUP)—W. C. McNamara, deputy commissioner of the Canadian Wheat Board, said today Canada would fullfill her wheat contracts this year and might even surpass the 225,000,000 bushels shipped overseas in 1949.

"Canada is doing everything possible to make the wheat agreement work," McNamara said, "and is confident everything will be satisfactory to everyone."

House Assured That Charity Can't Be Used To Cheat Tax

OTTAWA, June 7.—(CP)—The government gave assurance to a skeptical opposition member today that the Income Tax Act has been tightened to prevent alleged charitable donations being used to evade income tax fraudulently.

James Sinclair, parliamentary assistant to Finance Minister Abbott, told A. L. Smith (PC—Calgary West) the act has been buttressed to prevent Canada experiencing the "alarming" development of such evasions in other countries.

He spoke as Commons considered amendments to the act which were injected in the Senate at the suggestion of the finance department. The bill was originally introduced in Commons.

Mr. Sinclair said charitable foundations now are required to pay out at least 90 per cent of their annual income to charities. Another amendment would allow them not only to make gifts to charity but to engage in charitable work themselves.

CHARITY DEFINED

He assured J. M. Macdonnell (PC—Toronto Greenwood) regulations "will definitely spell out" just what charity is. Charitable trusts would be covered by the law but they, too, must spend 90 per cent of their income on recognized charity.

What, asked Mr. Smith, is there in the act to prevent certain types of people from using alleged charity as a mask for money-making? Charity could be used to skip taxes.

He thought great care would be needed to "see people are not carrying on the old chain reaction we had before."

What, for instance, would prevent an organization from saying it was going to bestow charity on Prince Seretse, the African leader who had been ordered by Britain to remain away from his tribesmen.

VIGILANCE NEEDED

Mr. Sinclair thought the bill would prevent gifts being passed from one "so-called charitable organization to another" in what Mr. Smith called a chain reaction.

Only recognized charities, such as the Red Cross or the Manitoba Relief Fund, would be eligible for gifts. The men who would determine just who was eligible for charity were those in the income tax department who already had to tackle that job in deciding whether individual claims for charitable gifts were legitimate.

Bulletin Oil Editor

A major gas field appears to be shaping up 35 miles west of Peace River town. Shell Oil drilling a large Crown reservation under a 50-50 deal with BA, has struck gas in a sand through a section more than 200 feet thick. No other gas field in Alberta producing from a sand has anything like this thickness.

The largest single flow clocked was 7,000,000 cubic feet a day, but this was on drill stem test and from only one section, 3,371 to 3,468 feet.

On test from 3,464 to 3,492 feet gas came at the rate of 2,259,000 cubic feet. Others flows were recorded.

INNER CIRCLE

Inner oil circles in Calgary are beginning to regard the Shell strike in the light of a major gas discovery. Like other gas strikes, this has been made incidental to the search for oil.

The real objective of the well is Devonian crude around the 7,000-foot level where Middle Devonian oil was discovered by Imperial at Normandville south of Peace River town.

While it is very early to attempt an evaluation of the Shell strike all the signs are certainly present, and if it works out it will mean still more billions to be added to Alberta's gas reserves.

EXPORT HEARING

As the hearing on the question of export goes on month after month the reserves continue to climb, but the wells are still capped and still there is no market.

A major gas strike at Whitelaw would add further ammunition to the guns of Westcoast Transmission which plans to take gas to the Pacific Northwest by an all-Canadian route through B.C. It would add still one more field to the available northern reserves.

The gas is thought to be coming from the Triassic. If so it will be the first Triassic discovery in Alberta.

Cordasun Petroleums has bought a one half interest in 640 acres 11 miles southeast of the National Malmberg Spring Coulee discovery.

For a 50 percent interest in the well and in the acreage, Cordasun paid $100,000.

National Petroleums is the operator. The well will be known as National Cordasun Milk River No. 1. The rig is moving in.

A reliable but unofficial report indicates that other farmout deals may be pending.

The Federated Petroleums group has completed two more wells on its $3,200,000 half-section in the Simmons area of the Redwater field.

The new producers are Federated-General Petroleums No. 2-36 and No. 10-36, in lsd 2 and 10 respectively of section 36-56-21w4th. The No. 2-36 has an initial potential of 2,250 barrels per day and the No. 10-36 rates 2,124 barrels daily open flow. The group's 15-36 well went on production late last week.

The Pacific Petroleums group has topped the D3 reef at another of its wells in the Simmons area of the Redwater field, and is making location for a new driller in the same area.

Pacific-Petrofina-Bruderheim No. 10-22 found the D3 top Tuesday at 3,196 feet (1,139 feet subsea) for an indicated D3 thickness of 99 feet. The well is now drilling in the zone at 3,227 feet.

Educators To Try Solution To Douks

Members Of Radical Sect Facing 1,111 Years In Jail

VANCOUVER, June 7.—(CP)—For parading in the nude and for burning homes, 372 Doukhobors must spend a total of 1,111 years in prison.

But where, ask harassed government authorities. Jail space is hard to find. Prominent British Columbia educationists believe that, although it will take a long time—more than two years at least—they are determined to succeed in solving the problem where others have failed.

Least worried about the years of strife in the mountainous Kootenays, 250 miles east of here, are the complex Sons of Freedom, or spirit wrestlers, 2,000 minority clansmen of the law-abiding orthodox Doukhobors.

This, it appears, is the big obstacle facing University of British Columbia scholars, who term the Doukhobor problem "unique and unbelievably complex." This week, the Sons of Freedom still were whooping it up, protesting, among other things, the "coming of a Third World War" and modern-day life in general.

EASILY SATISFIED

"Interested and qualified members of the UBC faculty recently organized consulting and research committees to act on the problem, 50 years old in B.C.

Before that, it was Saskachewan's problem; and before that, Russia's. The Doukhobors originally came from Russia to escape Czarist persecution.

Dr. Norman MacKenzie, UBC president, is provisional chairman; anthropologist Prof. H. B. Hawthorn is provisional director. Both know the difficulties involved in enlightening the Sons of Freedom.

Imprisonment means little to most of the fanatics. As long as they have their borscht and prayer, they appear happy.

Since violence began anew in April in the Kootenays, particularly at Krestova, 232 sons have been sentenced at Nelson, 130 at Grand Forks and 10 at Trail. All were charged with parading in the nude and most were given three-year prison terms. The only exceptions were the 10 women at Trail. They were given 2½ years.

JACOBY on Canasta

By OSWALD JACOBY

"I have only just begun to play Canasta," writes a Milwaukee correspondent, "and perhaps for that reason I have difficulty in understanding the reason for freezing the pack.

"When you discard a deuce or a joker, you are parting with a very valuable card. It strikes me that you never get back anything of comparable value.

"If you eventually get the frozen pack, it is true you get your wild card back, but you have not had the use of it in the meantime. This is like putting money in the bank and getting it back after a while without interest.

"If the opponents get the frozen pack, they get your wild card with it too. This is like putting your money in a bank that fails.

"I suppose since there is so much talk about freezing the pack that there must be some advantage in doing it. Would you be good enough to explain what this advantage is?"

DISCARD BATTLE

The reason you sometimes discard a deuce or a joker is that you want to prevent the opponents from getting the discard pile. Since the whole game is essentially a struggle for the discard pile, it is highly advantageous to shut the opponents out.

This does not mean, however, that it is a good idea to freeze the pack at any old time. It is foolish to discard one of your wild cards if the opponents have an excellent chance to win the frozen pack. To use my correspondent's comparisons, it's a good idea to invest your wild cards in a reliable bank because you will get back lots of interest; but you must make sure that your bank is reliable.

To carry this comparison a little farther, you don't invest every single cent that you own in the bank. You keep a little in your pocket for operating expenses. Similarly, you don't invest your only wild card to freeze the pack if you need that wild card for other purposes. For example, you might need it to make your first canasta or meld out.

Freezing the pack is a tremendously important subject, and I shall have more to say about it next week.

Both Celebrate Mann's Birthday

BERLIN, June 7.—(AP)—Both Communists and anti-Communists yesterday claimed novelist Thomas Mann as a supporter on his 77th birthday.

The winner of the 1929 Nobel Literature prize, whose anti-Nazi views caused him to leave Germany in 1933 and become an American citizen, spent his birthday in Switzerland.
